The New York Times

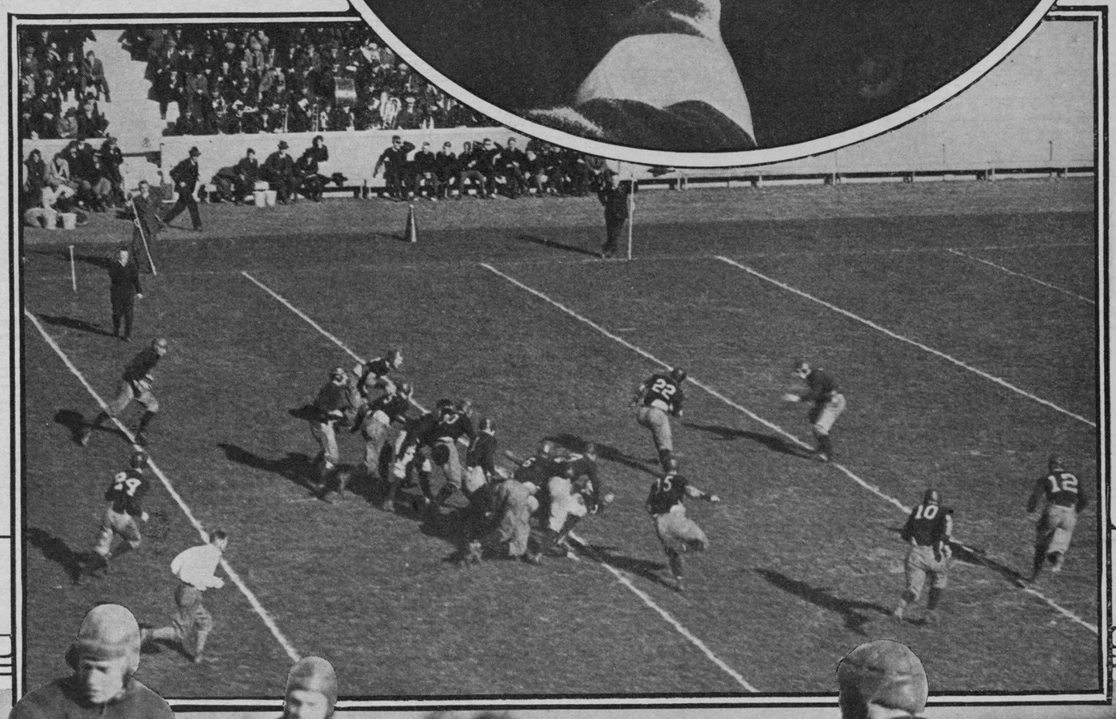
REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF AN ITALIAN SENTINEL ON SOLITARY GUARD DUTY AT A BOUNDARY POST ON THE AUSTRIAN FRONTIER

(Photo © by Paul Thompson.)

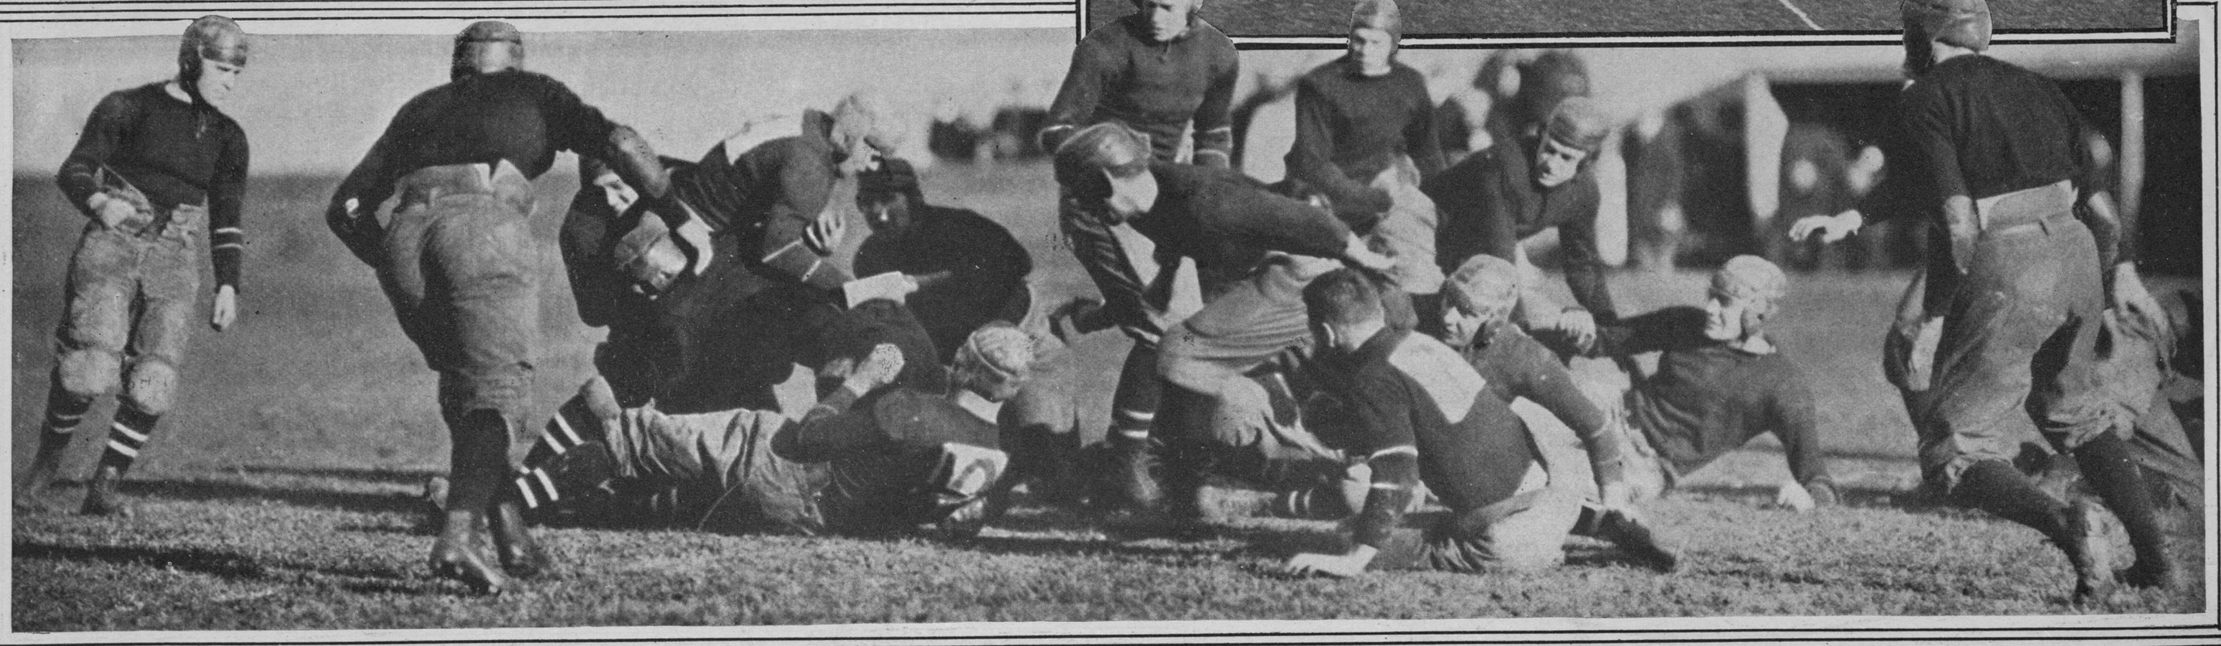
President Nicholas Murray Butler and Daughter, Miss Sarah Schuyler Butler, See Columbia Defeat St. Lawrence.

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

General Venustiano Carranza, Recognized by the United States and the South American Republics as the Chief Executive of Mexico, and His Staff of Government Secretaries.



Glick (No. 22), Princeton's Quarterback and Captain, Plunging Through Dartsmouth's Left Guard, Making a Substantial Gain, in Princeton's Defeat of Dartmouth on Oct. 23 by a Score of 30 to 7.



COLLINS OF CORNELL MAKING A DRIVE THROUGH HARVARD'S LINE FOR A GAIN OF SEVERAL YARDS IN THE GAME OF OCTOBER 23, WHEN CORNELL DEFEATED HARVARD FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THEIR FOOTBALL HISTORY.

(Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)