

FRENCH SOLDIERS, IN ACTUAL ATTACK, CREEPING UP ON THE GERMANS UNDER COVER OF FRENCH ARTILLERY FIRE.
From a French Official Photograph Just Received in This Country.
(Photo © by Medem Photo Service.)

SIR DOUGLAS HAIG,
Who Succeeds Field Marshal Sir John French
As Commander of the British Forces in France.

(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

Miss Marsh, Who Is Now the Chauffeur for David Lloyd George, British Minister of Munitions, Taking the Place of a Man Who Went to the Front.
(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

French Scouts on a Risky Expedition in the Argonne Forest in an Effort to Locate the German Lines.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

QUEEN MARY AND PRINCESS MARY, REPRESENTING KING GEORGE V. IN HIS ILLNESS, REVIEWING NEW TROOPS AT FARNBOROUGH. The Queen Is Particularly Interested in a Soldier's Mascot.