

MME. EMMA CALVÉ SINGING THE MARSEILLAISE, which, under the direction of the Vacation Committee, she is to render in many large cities of the country early in the new year in behalf of humane work among the armies of the allies.

From a new and hitherto unpublished photograph. (Photo © by Aime Dupont.)

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

KEIDAVI ANDERSON, THE DANISH SKI JUMPER, taking a flying leap in Central Park over his compatriots who are appearing with him at the Hippodrome.

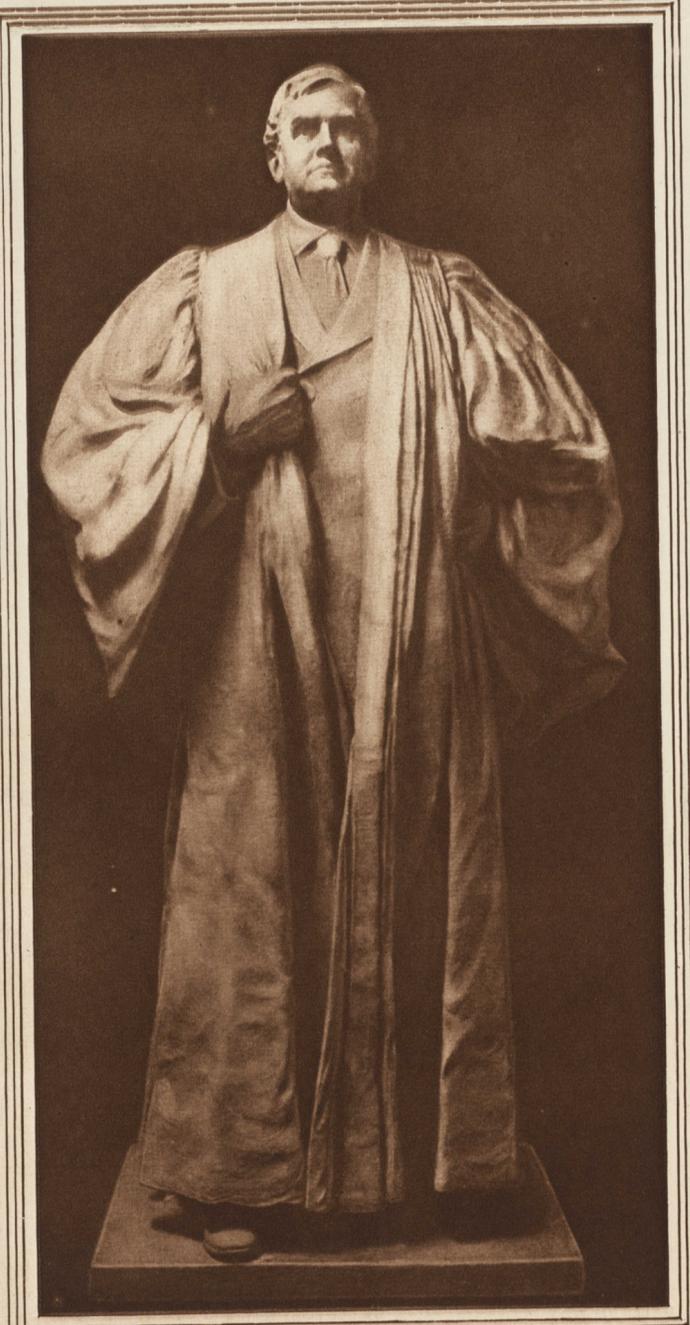

MISS M. MacPHERSON, widely known in Canada as an amateur champion in winter sports, skiing near Montreal.

SKATING SUIT OF WHITE SHETLAND JERSEY. (By Courtesy of J. M. Gidding & Co.—Photo by Joel Feder.)

THE COUNTESS OF MINTO, who is credited with having done much, if not most, to make winter sports popular with exclusive Canadian society.

PHILLIPS BROOKS. From a photograph of the statue of the famous minister to be erected in Boston after the design by Bela L. Pratt.