

RINGSIDE SCENE AT THE DOG SHOW IN ONE OF THE FAMOUS PALM GROVES AT PALM BEACH.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

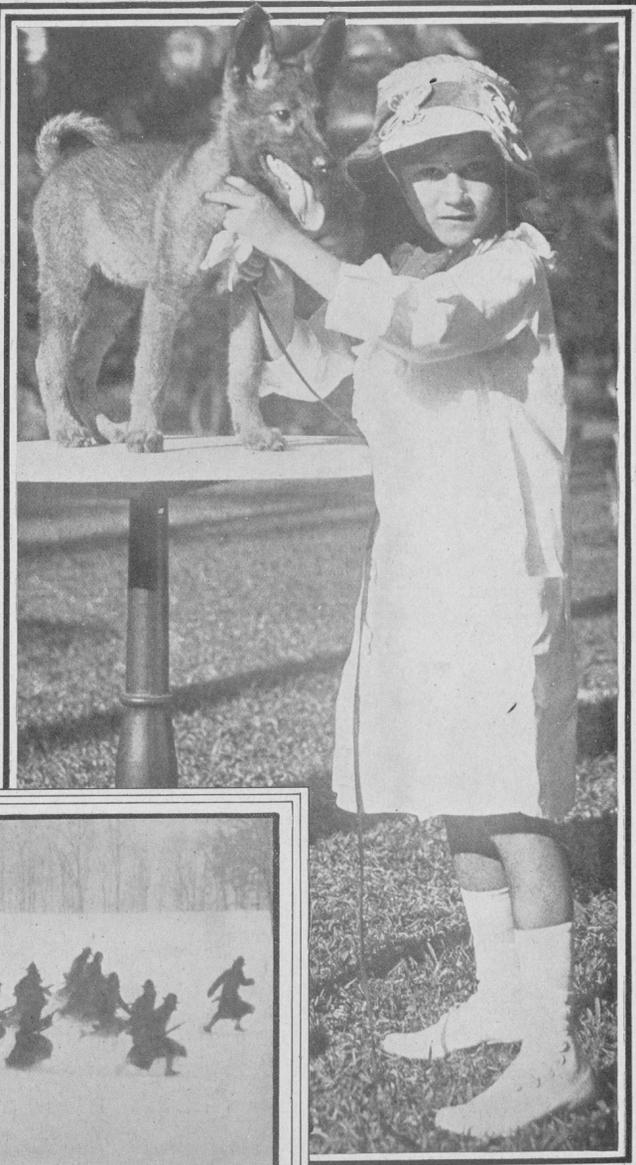

SIX SUBMARINES OF THE H. CLASS, BUILT FOR ENGLAND, BUT CANNOT BE DELIVERED UNTIL AFTER THE WAR, INTERNED IN BOSTON.

In the Background Are Five United States Submarines of the L Class.
(Photo © by Press Illustrating Co.)

MAJORGENERAL JOHN F. O'RYAN (Centre), Commander in Chief of the New York National Guard, and Members of His Staff, Watching the War Games at Peekskill in Last Sunday's Snow-storm.

LITTLE PAULINE MUNN Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Washington, Showing Fritzy to the Palm Beach Fanciers.

COMPANY F, SEVENTY-FIRST REGIMENT, N. G. N. Y., CHARGING, KNEE DEEP IN SNOW, IN THE PEEKSKILL WAR GAMES ON LAST SUNDAY.
(Photos © by American Press Assn.)