

A Camera Clutch on New Jersey's National Guardsmen in their Texas Border Camps

The Fifth Regiment setting up camp at Douglas, Arizona

Central News Photo Service.

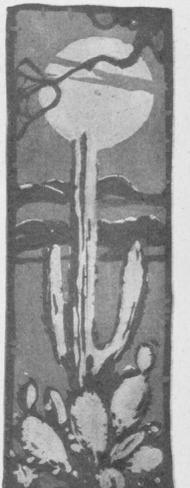

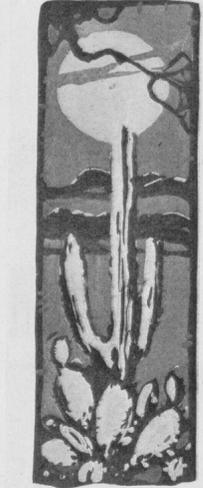

A detail of the First Regiment building a road through the camp

Central News Photo Service.

Missouri, New York and New Jersey are represented in this camp fire sing song and story telling fest in a border patrol out-post camp.

Central News Photo Service.

The 'Dobe Boys at Work. — New Jerseymen are familiar with clay and they take kindly to the mixing of adobe brick which is made of Mexican clay and a straw binder.

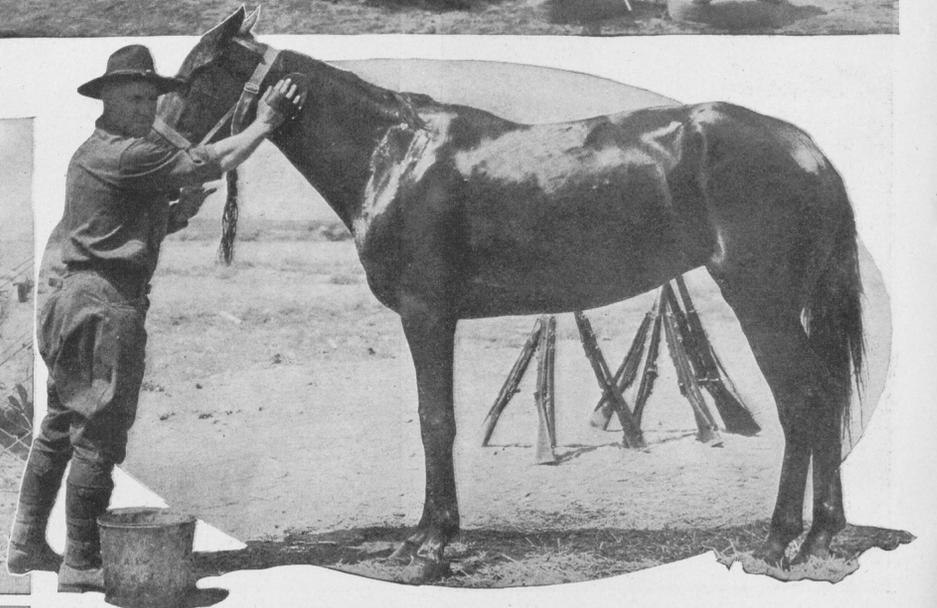

Central News Photo Service.

The camp street of the First Battery, Essex County, N. G., N. J.

Lieutenant Le Roy T. Parker, Adjutant, First Regiment, making an adobe floor in his tent.

Central News Photo Service.

Captain Gerrish of the First Regiment making friends with a new mount

Central News Photo Service.