

The American Library Association in convention at Asbury Park.

SLEEPING CAR A COLLEGE DORMITORY—Students of Blackburn College, Carlinville, Ill., are using discarded railroad sleeping cars for dormitories during the spring and winter months. Two cars have been placed on the campus. One coach has been occupied by boy and the other by girl students. Each coach has forty upper and lower berths two drawing rooms and wash-rooms.

Photo from Robert H. Moulton.

AND STILL NEWARK CELEBRATES—For three months to come Newark, N. J., will continue to celebrate its 250th Anniversary. The photograph shows Market St. illuminated as it is and will be during every night of the celebration.

PART OF THE GIRLS' SLEEPING CAR DORMITORY—Observation room in the sleeping car which the girl students of Blackburn College, Carlinville, Ill., have turned into a dormitory. A brick foundation has been put under the car and sewage, electric light and hot water heating connections have been made. The cars were utilized to relieve congestion in the existing dormitory buildings.

Photo from Robert H. Moulton.

Delegates who attended the seventh annual convention of the New Jersey Retail Jewellers' Association at Asbury Park on June 18 last.

Photo by Cole & Co., Asbury Park, N. J.