

Mrs. J. Hungerford Milbank, major commanding (right), and Mrs. Margaret De Lisle, the camp matron.

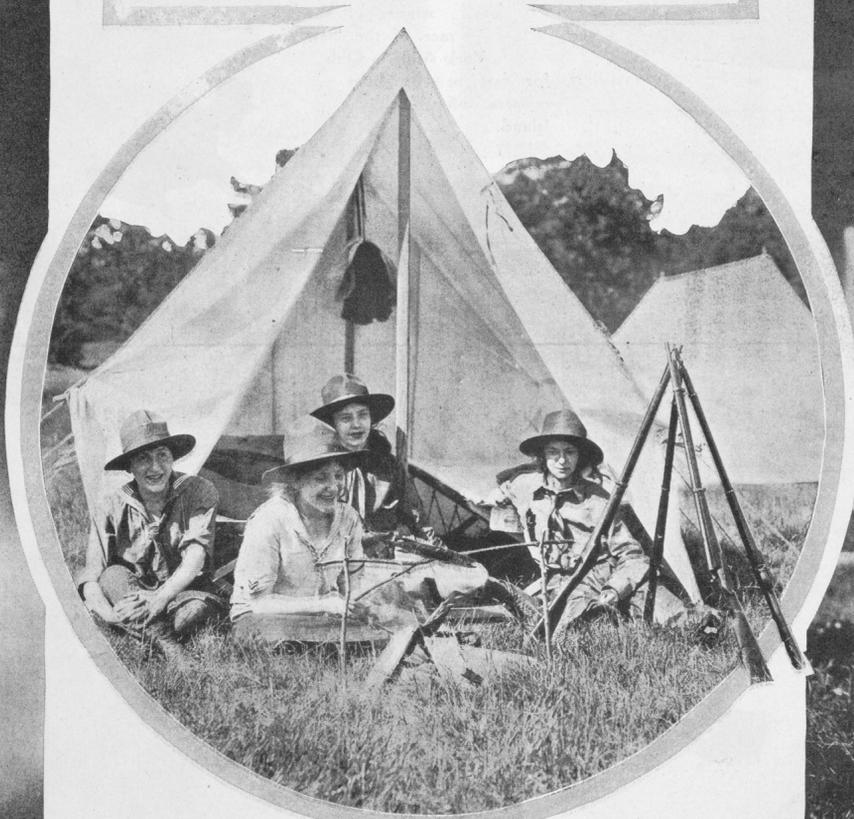

LEARNING TO SHOOT STRAIGHT—Left, Mrs. Margaret De Lisle, camp matron; Florence Katz, chief nurse; Grace Garlin, Marion Loewy and Margaret Sweeney.

The Women Who Prepare in Their Camp at Monticello, New York.

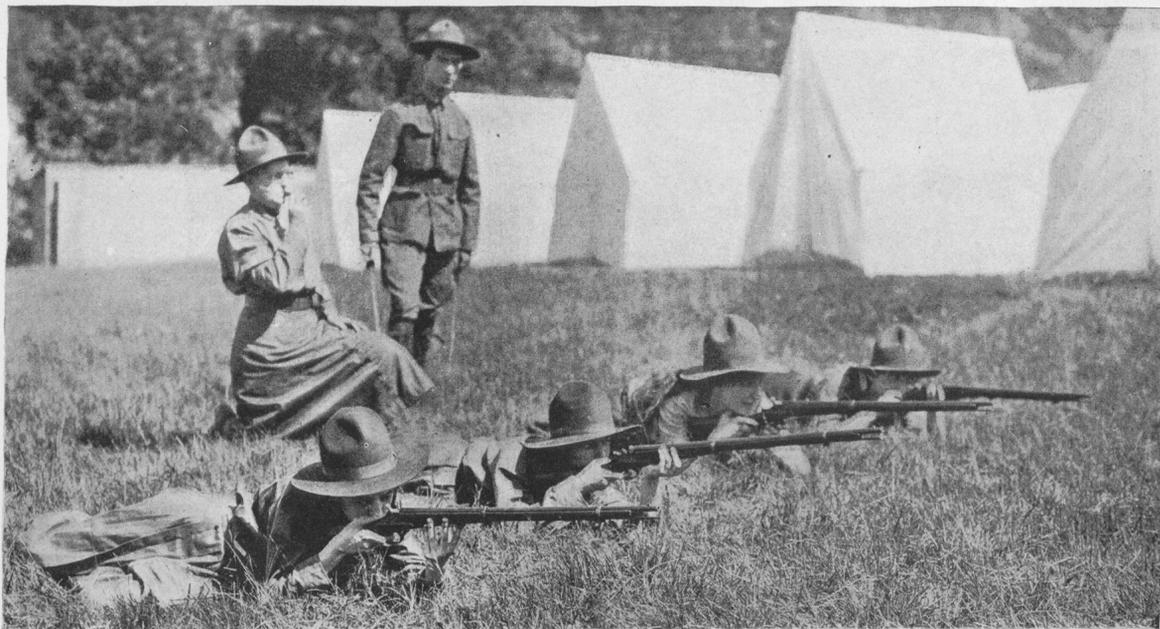

THE CAMP FIRE SENTRY—Sorry, but he is a man.

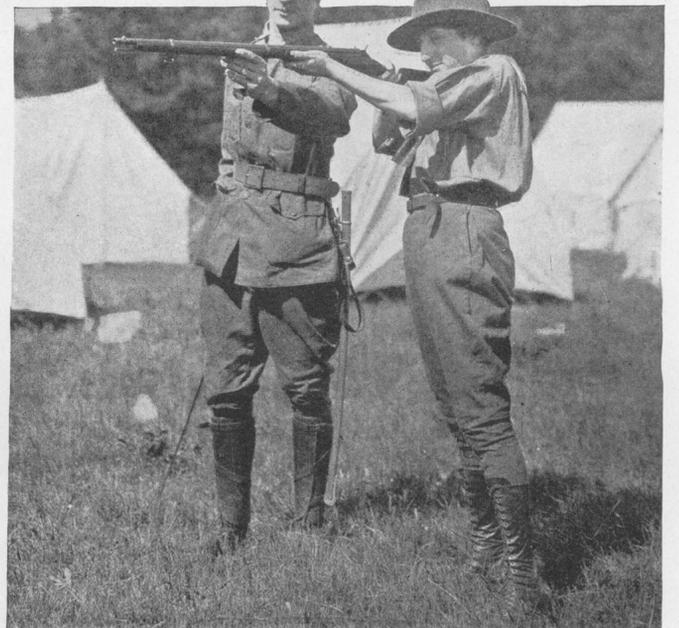

THE FIRST FOUR RECRUITS—Learning the rudiments of camp life. The first four girl recruits at the Monticello camp broiling a fish over a wood fire.

Good night— Taps!

ON THE FIRING LINE AT MONTICELLO—Mrs. Margaret De Lisle and one of the instructors, Captain Welford Travis.

Captain Kraus, one of the instructors, showing Florence Katz how to aim correctly.