

Mustering the 1st Militia Aero Squadron, N. G. N. Y., into the Federal Service for duty on the Mexican border. The squadron has two machines and

With the Amateur Defenders of the U. S. By Sea, by Land and by Air is the first of the militia flyers to be mustered in.

International Film Service

Naval militia men lined up for rollcall on the deck of the United States Battleship Kentucky, on which they are taking a practice cruise.

© Underwood & Underwood

Members of the 1st Cavalry, N. G. N. Y., in a watermelon fest on the Texas border.

© American Press Association

Colonel Willard C. Fisk of the 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., watching the making of horse shelter covers.

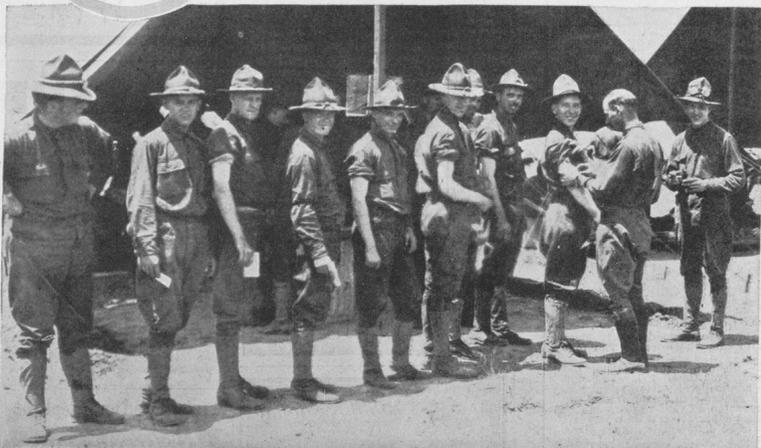

© American Press Association

Wash day with the 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., at McAllen, Tex.

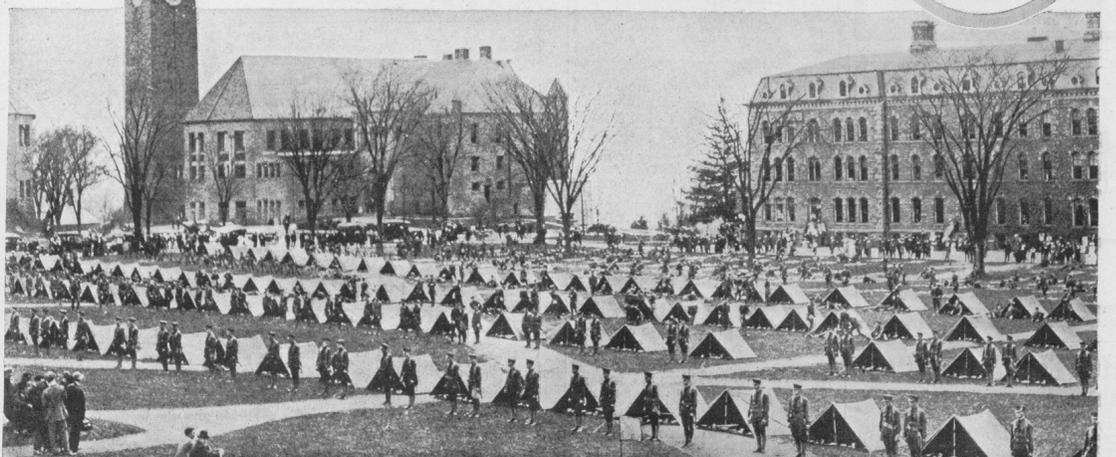

© American Press Association

The 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., making adobe brick to be used for sanitary camp tent floors at McAllen, Tex.

© American Press Association

The Inoculation Line of the 7th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., at McAllen, Tex. The men are being inoculated against typhoid fever.

MILITARY TRAINING ON CORNELL UNIVERSITY CAMPUS—Twelve hundred students in every class receive instruction which fits them to become army officers. There are twelve companies of infantry, a Signal Corps, a machine gun platoon, a band and trumpeters. © Underwood & Underwood.