

"BOATHOUSE, WINTER, HARLEM RIVER"—BY ERNEST LAWSON,
To Which Was Awarded the Second W. A. Clark
Prize of $1,500 and Silver Medal at the Current Sixth Biennial Exhibition by Contemporary American Painters
at the Corcoran Art Gallery,
Washington. The Library and Hall of Fame of New York University Can Be Seen on the Heights Beyond the River.

(Photo by
W. F.
Roberts
Co.)

LADY CARSON,
Wife of Sir Edward Carson, First Lord of the Admiralty in the New Lloyd George Cabinet, Out for a Walk in Hyde Park, London: A New Photograph.
(Photo from International Film Service.)

MRS. LUTHER BURBANK,
Bride and Former Secretary of the Famous Naturalist and Plant
"Wizard," Who Is
Thirty-seven Years His Junior.
(Photo by International
Film
Service.)

THE BRAZILIAN SHIP NEPTIS, WRECKED
AND ABANDONED BY HER CREW 150 MILES
EAST OF NEW YORK, FOUND A DERELICT
ON THE HIGH SEAS BY THE U. S. COAST GUARD CUTTER SENECA, AND TOWED TO NEW YORK
Captain J. H. Brown of the Seneca Can Be Seen Standing on the Deck of His Vessel.

(Photo © by International
Film Service.)

AN
OKLAHOMA
INDIAN CHIEF,
Now an Automobile
Salesman, Beside His Tepee
Pitched Under the Shadow of the Willys-Overland Administration Building, Toledo, Ohio, During the Recent Automobile Dealers' Convention in That City, Attended by 8,600 Persons, Representing Every State in the Union, With One Delegate from Manila, P. I.

MRS. GEORGE CURTIS TREADWELL
COASTING AT THE YAMA YAMA FARMS.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

MISSSES ANNE LARSON AND NELL COFFANEY, California Girls, Donned the Jeans at the Recent Oakland Celebration to Help in Preparing the First Blast at the Pacific End of the Coast-to-Coast Lincoln Highway.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)