

THE GERMAN EMPEROR AND CHARLES I, THE NEW EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA, REVIEW TOGETHER TROOPS AT THE GERMAN GRAND HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE ON THE FIRST VISIT TO THE KAISER BY EMPEROR CHARLES SINCE HIS CORONATION.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NEW SPANISH SUBMARINE, ISAAC PERAL, SAID TO BE THE LARGEST BUILT IN AMERICAN WATERS, LEAVING THE FORE RIVER SHIP YARDS FOR SPAIN IN CHARGE OF A SPANISH CREW.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

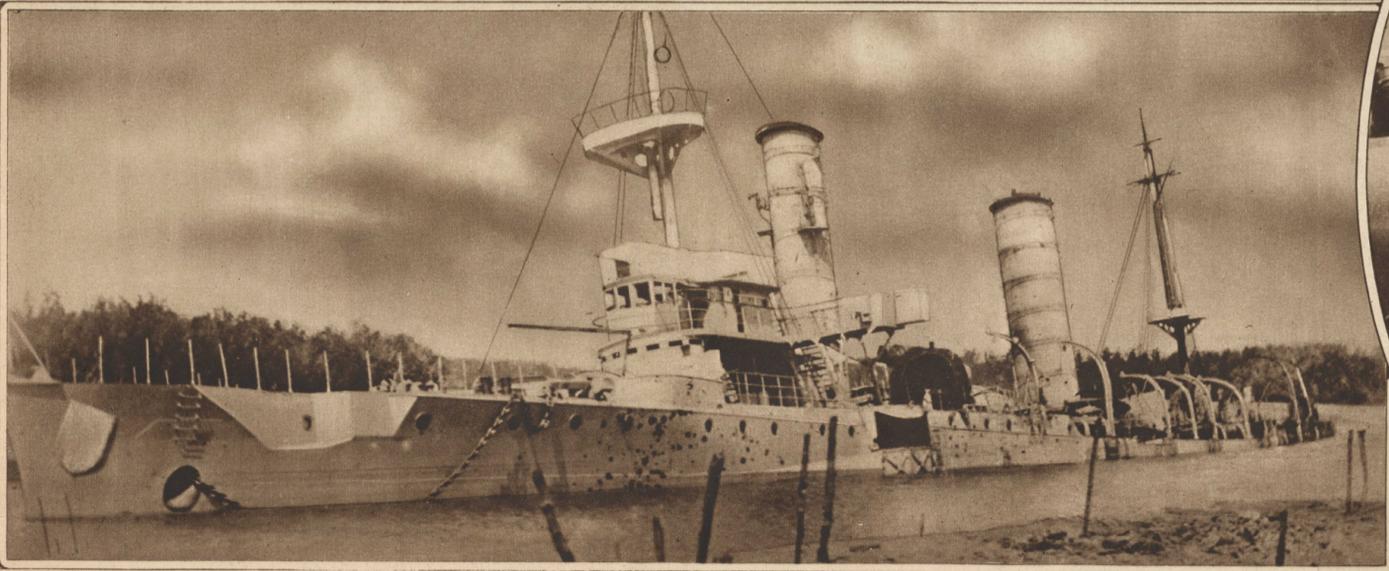

Metropolitan Opera Folk and Other Notables Gathered on Last Sunday to Inhale Vapor Produced From the Waters of the Little Italian Village of Salsomaggiore, Said to be Peculiarly Beneficial to Singers and Public Speakers.
In the Group, Seated, Left to Right, Are: Mme. Wallska, Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Edgar, Mme. Maria Barrientos, Maestro Romei, and Signor Gatti-Casazza, General Director of the Metropolitan Opera House. Standing: Daniel Frohman, Pasquale Amato, Mme. Amato, Enrico Caruso, Mrs. Bastedo, Victor Maurel, Mr. Bastedo, Dr. Sarlaboug, and Alexander Lambert. (Photo © U. & U.)

THE BRITISH KITE DIRIGIBLE, THE ENGLISH FORM OF ZEPPELIN, ENTERING ITS HANGAR NEAR SALONIKI.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo from Pach. Photo News.)
SUB-LIEUTENANT ETIENNE TSU, Chinese Aviator in the French Service, Who Has Brought Down Five German Craft, For Which He Has Been Promoted From the Ranks and Awarded the Military Cross With Two Palms and One Star.

The German Cruiser and Raider Koenigsberg, Riddled With Shot and Shell, Now Lying on the Mud in Rufiji River in German East Africa Where She Took Refuge and Was Bottled Up Early in the War.
(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)