

TEN SUBMARINES, BUILT AT QUINCY, MASS., FOR THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND INTERNED AT BOSTON AT THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR, WHICH HAVE NOW BEEN SOLD TO CHILE IN PART PAYMENT FOR TWO SUPER-DREADNOUGHTS, WHICH WERE UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN ENGLISH SHIPYARDS AND WERE SEIZED BY THE BRITISH AT THE OUT-BREAK OF THE WAR.

(Photo © Int. Film Serv.)

Rear Admiral Luiz Gomez Carreno of the Chilean Navy Has Arrived to Take Over the Submersibles for His Government.

THE STEAM YACHT SIALIA, WHICH HAS JUST BEEN BOUGHT BY HENRY FORD, THE AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURER.

The Sialia Was Formerly Owned by J. K. Stewart of Chicago, and Is Estimated by Yachtsmen to be worth Approximately $400,000. She Is 200 Feet Long, and Has an Average Speed Record of Eighteen Miles. There Are Nine Staterooms.

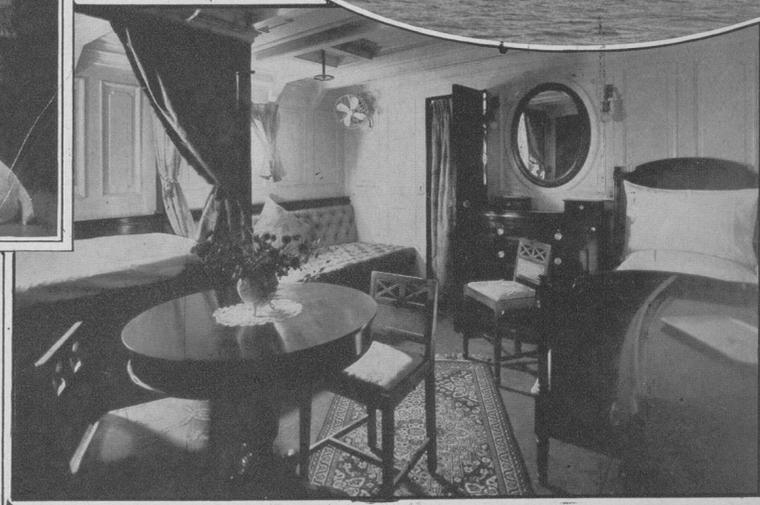

(Photos by Edwin Levick.)

(Photo from Bain News Service.)

UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR JAMES W. GERARD, AND ENTIRE EMBASSY STAFF DIRECTED BY THE PRESIDENT TO LEAVE BERLIN.

In the Group, Seated, Left to Right, Are: Major G. B. Langhorne, Ambassador Gerard, Lieut. Commander W. R. Gherardi. Standing: L. H. Hoite, C. W. Dyer, A. B. Ruddock, Willing Spencer, L. L. Winslow, W. Knoth, and J. C. Grew.

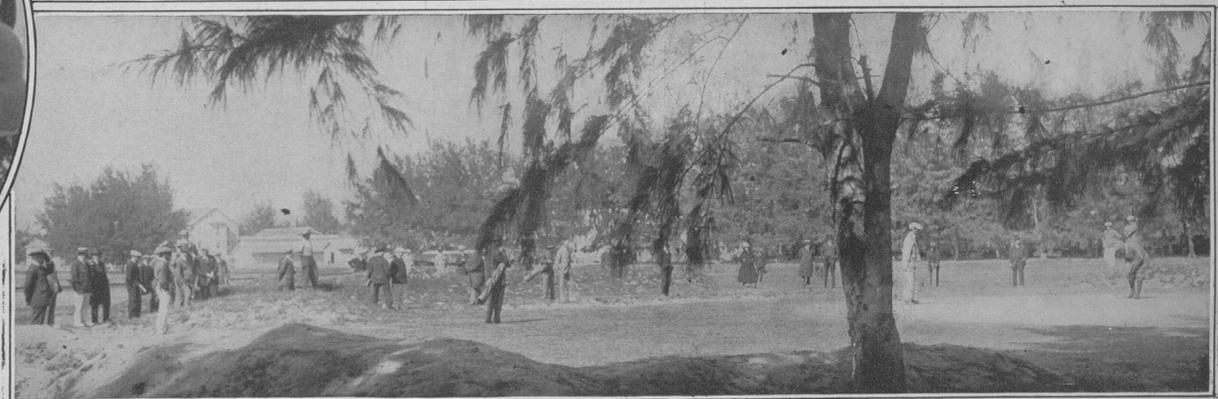

MR. FORD'S ROOM ON THE SIALIA.

KING GUSTAVUS V. OF SWEDEN INTERRUPTS A HOCKEY MATCH IN THE STADIUM AT STOCKHOLM TO SPEAK WITH HIS GRANDSON, PRINCE GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS, ELDEST SON OF THE CROWN PRINCE.

(Photo from U. & U.)

WALTER J. FRAVIS AND A. J. McCLURE IN THE FINAL MATCH OF THE LAKE WORTH GOLF TOURNAMENT AT PALM BEACH, WON BY TRAVIS.

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)