

ALL SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, TURNS OUT TO CHEER UNITED STATES TROOPS LEAVING THE ISLAND FOR SERVICE IN THE PANAMA CANAL ZONE.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

New York Society Women, in a "Canning Special," Spread the Food Shortage Alarm Among Long Island Housewives.

In the Car Are: Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, (Second from Left), Mrs. William Laimbeer, Mrs. J. Watson Webb, Mrs. G. W. Pierpont, Mrs. H. B. Fullerton, and Mrs. Ralph Peters. (Kadel & Herbert.)

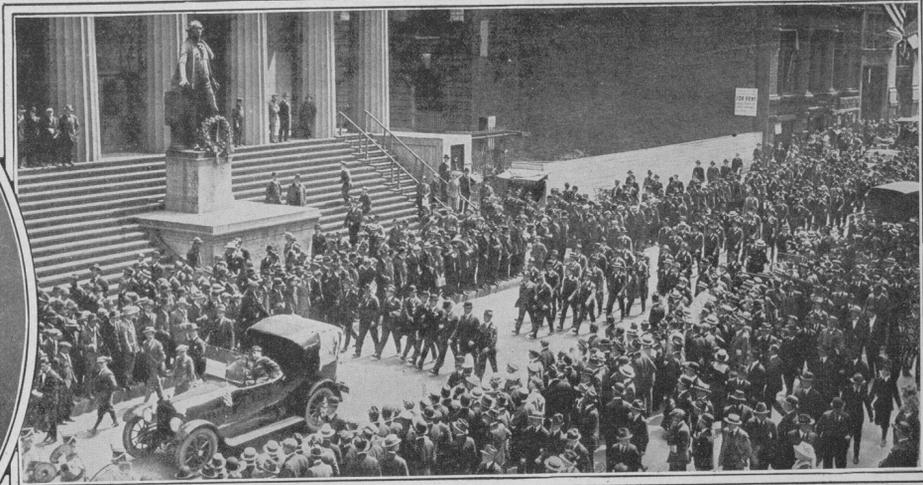

MISS EVA BURROUGHS FONTAINE, Dancer, Taking Her Morning Marathon Through Central Park. (© American Press Assn.)

MRS. W. K. VANDERBILT, JR., MINDING A LONG ISLAND MOTHER'S CHILDREN WHILE THE MOTHER GOES TO MEET THE "CANNING SPECIAL."

(© International Film Service.)

PROFESSIONAL BOND SALESMEN, 400 STRONG, MARCHING OUT OF WALL STREET, PAST THE UNITED STATES SUB-TREASURY BUILDING, FOR A HOUSE-TO-HOUSE CANVASS IN THE INTEREST OF THE LIBERTY LOAN. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

FELS VON GESUNDERNEN, A German Shepherd Dog Owned by G. Sabo, Giving an Exhibition of His Great Strength and Prowess at the Nassau County Kennel Show, Where He Took First Prize. (Edwin Levick.)

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK AT THE RECEPTION GIVEN HER AT SAN DIEGO, CAL., IN WHICH THE CIVIC, SOCIAL, FRATERNAL, AND EVEN THE POLITICAL, ORGANIZATIONS OF THE CITY TOOK PART. Mme. Schumann-Heink, Austrian by Birth, Is an American Citizen, Has Two Sons Officers in the Austrian Navy, and Two Sons and a Son-in-Law in the American Army. In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Mme. Schumann-Heink, U. S. Grant, Jr., Son of General U. S. Grant; Mme. Shelley H. Tolhurst, John D. Spreckels, and Mrs. U. S. Grant, Jr.