

CONFEDERATE VETERANS, AT THE FIRST REUNION TO BE HELD IN WASHINGTON DURING THE MANY YEARS OF ANNUAL GATHERINGS, BREAKING RANKS DURING THE GRAND PARADE WHICH MARKED THE FINAL DAY OF THEIR REUNION CEREMONIES TO SHAKE HANDS WITH THE PRESIDENT, MRS. WILSON AND OTHERS IN THE REVIEWING STAND.

Among the Reviewers in the First Row, Left to Right, Are: Governor H. C. Stuart, of Virginia, Near the Extreme Left; Mrs. Wilson, The President, Vice President Marshall, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Champ Clark, and Speaker Clark.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY AND SPONSORS FLY THE STARS AND STRIPES IN THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS PARADE. In the Rear Seat of the Motor Car, Wearing a Dark Hat, Is Miss Mary Custis Lee, Only Surviving Child of General Robert E. Lee.

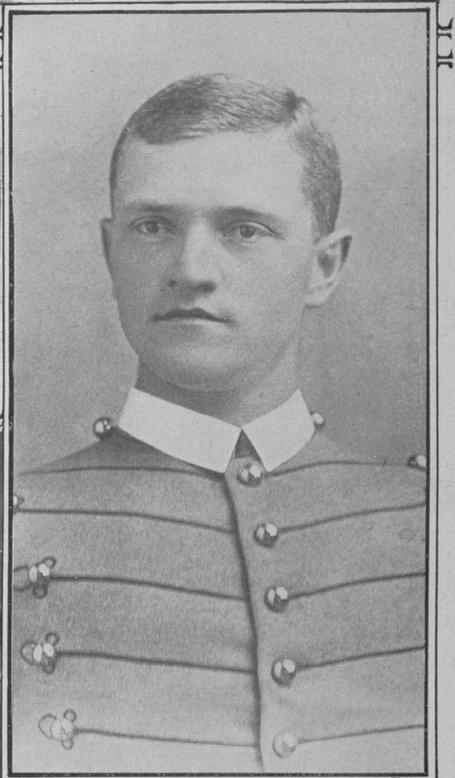

(© International Film Service.)

CONFEDERATE VETERAN WEARING THE OLD UNIFORM AND CARRYING THE OLD FLAG. (© International Film Service.)

CONFEDERATE VETERAN, UNABLE LONGER TO MARCH, INSISTS ON BEING WHEELED IN THE PARADE DOWN PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, HOLDING ALOFT THE CONFEDERATE "STARS AND BARS." (© International Film Service.)

MAJOR GENERAL JOHN JOSEPH PERSHING, Commander of the American Land Forces in Europe, as a Cadet at West Point in 1836.

MISS EDITH TEMPLE GRACIE,

Daughter of Mrs. Archibald Gracie and the Late Archibald Gracie, a Survivor and Historian of the Titanic Disaster, Whose Engagement to Dunbar Burchell Adams, of New York, Has Been Announced. (Clindinst Studio, from Underwood & Underwood.)

PARK COMMISSIONER CABOT WARD OF MANHATTAN AND FRANK L. DOWLING, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION OF THE CITY'S PUBLIC FARM GARDENS. They Are Here Shown On the Tract at 184th Street and Harlem River, Given Over to the Girls of That Neighborhood by Mrs. A. Alexander, Standing with Them. (© American Press Assn.)