

THE NEW FRENCH WARPLANE AND "ZEPPELIN CHASER," SHOWING THE COMPLETE EQUIPMENT, INCLUDING RAPID-FIRE GUN, SEARCHLIGHTS, ROCKETS, AND MASCOT. THE LATTER CAN BE SEEN JUST BENEATH THE GUN.
(© International Film Service.)

A BELGIAN WAR DOG, WHICH WAS WOUNDED IN THE LEG IN THE DEFENSE OF BRUSSELS AND IS NOW ONE OF THE MASCOTS AT THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY WAR HOSPITAL, SHOWING HIS PROWESS, MUCH TO THE ENJOYMENT OF THE HOSPITAL LITTER BEARERS.
(Times Photo Service.)

"WE WANT TO GO TO FRANCE," SO SAY THESE MEN WITH THEIR FLAGS AT THE SIGNAL CORPS CAMP AT LITTLE SILVER, N. J.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

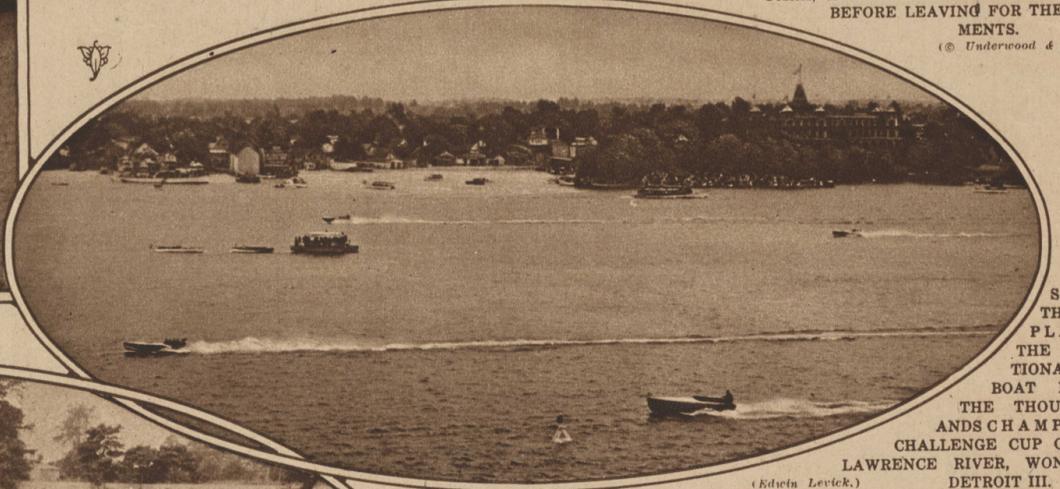

HERBERT C. HOOVER, THE NEW FOOD ADMINISTRATOR OF THE UNITED STATES.
From a New Photograph.

THE FORMER SEVENTH AND TWELFTH REGIMENTS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD, NOW FEDERALIZED, DRILLING IN CENTRAL PARK, A PART OF THEIR DAILY PROGRAM BEFORE LEAVING FOR THE CANTONMENTS.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

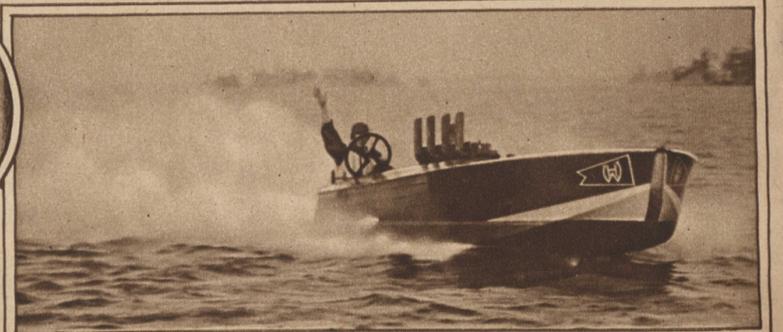

"RED" SCANLON, NEGRO PUGILIST, Has an Almost Miraculous Escape from Death When His Airplane, Hurling Downward from a Great Height, Plunges Through the Roof of a Bakery, Scanlon Going Through the Roof with It. The Machine Is Here Shown as Found by French Soldiers Who Rushed to the Negro Airman's Rescue.
(© International Film Service.)

START OF THE HYDROPLANES IN THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT RACE FOR THE THOUSAND ISLANDS CHAMPIONSHIP CHALLENGE CUP ON THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER, WON BY MISS DETROIT III.
(Edwin Levick.)

MEN OF THE UNITED STATES MEDICAL DEPARTMENT AT THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL, FORDHAM, DRILLING IN SQUAD FORMATION, CARRYING FOLDED LITTERS INSTEAD OF GUNS.
(Times Photo Service.)

MISS DETROIT III, George A. Wood of the Detroit Yacht Club, Owner, Winner of the Thousand Islands Challenge Cup, Crossing the Finish Line After Having Made an Average Speed of 44 Miles an Hour Over the Course.
(Edwin Levick.)