

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL III. OF ITALY AND PRESIDENT POINCARÉ OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, REVIEWING FRENCH TROOPS AT NOYON DURING THE KING'S RECENT VISIT TO THE FRENCH FRONT. (Pictorial Press.)

A MODERN RACHEL AT THE WELL.
An Idyllic Scene in Front of the American Y. M. C. A. Branch in a Village Behind the French Front.

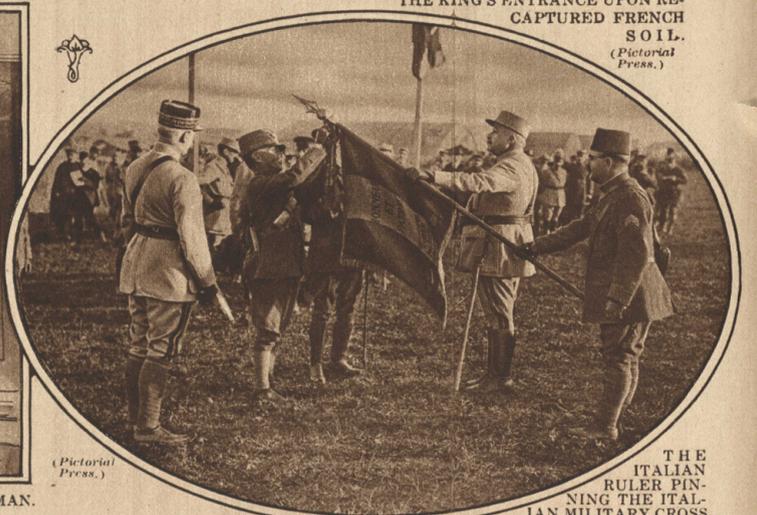

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL III. OF ITALY, DECORATING GENERAL HENRI PHILIPPE PÉTAIN, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE FRENCH ARMIES. (Pictorial Press.)

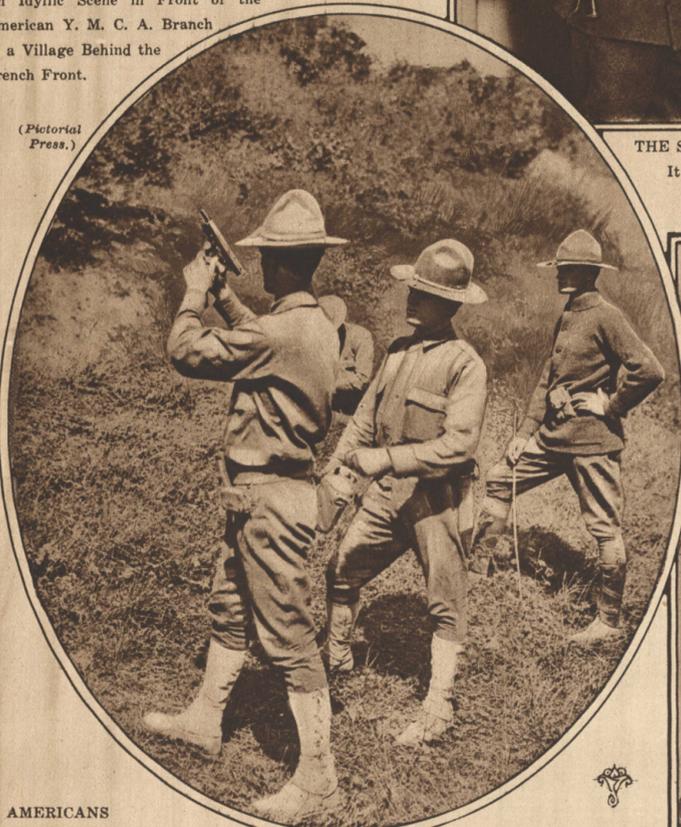

THE KING OF ITALY AND PRESIDENT POINCARÉ RECEIVED BY THE CITIZENS OF WESSERLING, ALSACE, ON THE KING'S ENTRANCE UPON RECAPTURED FRENCH SOIL. (Pictorial Press.)

THE SOLE REMAINING RELIC OF BOELKE, THE GERMAN FLYING MAN. It is a Piece of Canvas Cut from His Machine, Showing Upon It Forty-five Crosses, One for Each of the Allies' Machines Brought Down by Him. (© International Film Service.)

THE ITALIAN RULER PINNING THE ITALIAN MILITARY CROSS ON THE FLAG OF THE THIRD FRENCH ZOUAVES, OF WHICH HE IS HONORARY COLONEL, HERE PRESENTED TO HIM FOR THAT PURPOSE BY GENERAL MACMAHON, DUKE OF MAGENTA. (Pictorial Press.)

AMERICANS IN FRANCE AT TARGET PRACTICE WITH AUTOMATIC PISTOLS. (Pictorial Press.)

AMERICAN RED CROSS NURSES IN THE LIVING ROOM OF THEIR PORTABLE HUT BEHIND THE BELGIAN LINES. (Pictorial Press.)