

AMERICAN SOLDIERS FIRING A SALUTE AT THE GRAVE OF JOHANN FICKEM, MEMBER OF THE INTERNED GERMAN CREW OF THE CROWN PRINCE WILHELM, WHO DIED SOME DAYS AGO AT FT. McPHERSON, AND WAS BURIED WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS. (Water Winn.)

"LITTLE FRANCIS,"
Blue Ribbon Winner in the Limit
Class at the Recent First Annual Specialty Show of the National Maltese Dog Club.
(Times Photo Service.)

GROUP OF GERMAN PRISONERS, MOST OF THEM SCARCELY MORE THAN BOYS, CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH DURING THE RECENT STORMING OF FORT MALMAISON, AISNE FRONT, A STRONGHOLD CONSIDERED BY THE GERMANS IMPREGNABLE. (Pictorial Press.)

PHOTOGRAPH, TAKEN FROM A MILITARY AIRPLANE, OF THE BATTLEFIELD BEFORE CAMBRAI LOOKING EAST, WITH THE TOWN OF BOURLON ON THE LEFT, BOURLON WOODS IN THE CENTRE, AND THE VILLAGE OF FONTAINE NOTRE-DAME, WHICH HAS BEEN CAPTURED AND LOST SEVERAL TIMES BY THE OPPOSING BRITISH AND GERMAN FORCES, ON THE RIGHT. The Terrain Here Shown Is Beyond the Hindenburg Line, and Is the New Territory Recaptured by General Byng and the Tanks. The Road on the Right Is That Running from Bapaume to Cambrai, the Latter Town Lying Straight Ahead About Five Miles Beyond Fontaine Notre-Dame.

CUBAN COAST ARTILLERYMEN DRAWN UP BEFORE AN AMERICAN FORT WHERE THEY RECENTLY ARRIVED TO RECEIVE ADVANCE INSTRUCTION IN COAST DEFENSE GUNNERY, IN ACCORDANCE WITH PRESIDENT MENOCA'S PLAN OF MILITARY COOPERATION WITH THE UNITED STATES. (© J. V. Knight.)

MISS ELSIE DE WOLFE Of New York, to Whom the French Government Has Just Awarded a Silver Medal for Hospital Work, Administering the Ambrose Treatment in the Hospital Founded by Baroness de Rothschild at Compiègne, France, to a Poilu Whose Hands Have Been Severely Burned.

AMERICAN ARTILLERYMEN IN TRAINING "SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE." (Pictorial Press.)

GERMAN PRISONERS ENGAGED IN ERECTING WINTER BARRACKS IN FRANCE FOR AMERICAN SOLDIERS. (International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, STEEL HELMETED AND FULLY EQUIPPED FOR FIGHTING, IN A FIRST-LINE TRENCH IN FRANCE. (Gilliams Service.)