

Seventy Thousand of New York's Forty Nationalities
March in Freedom's Name.

WILLIAM TELL AND SON MARCHING AT THE HEAD OF THE SWISS DIVISION.
(Central News
Photo Service.)

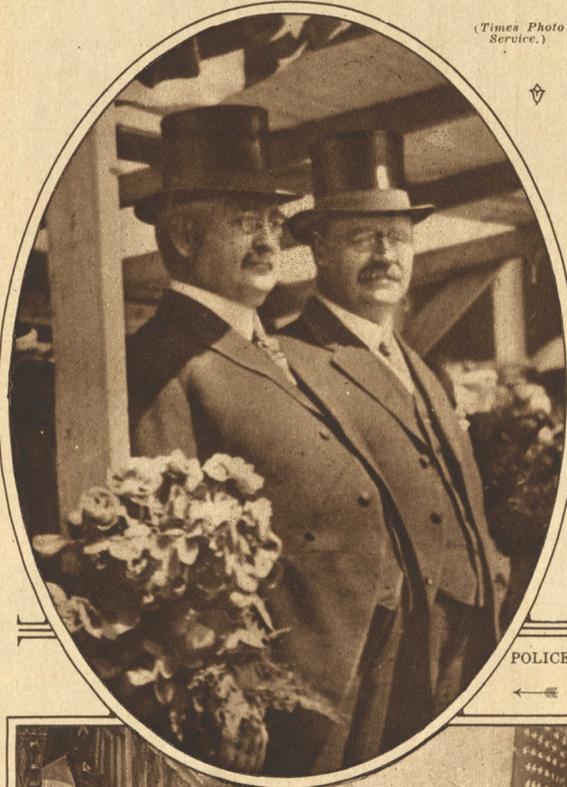

ITALIANS IN THE
GREAT FIFTH AVENUE
PAGEANT CARRYING THE "STARS
AND STRIPES," MADE BY THE TRI-COLORED UMBRELLAS WHICH SHADED THEM FROM THE JULY SUN.
(Times Photo
Service.)

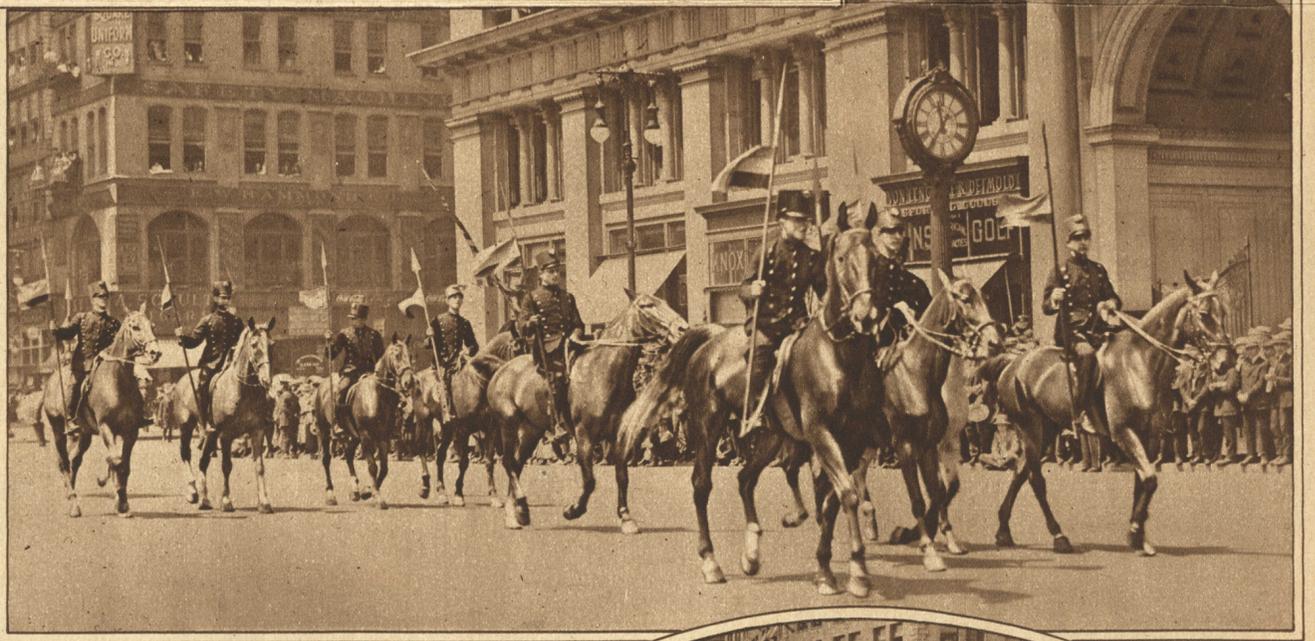

FRENCH SAILOR AND HIS LITTLE AIDE AT THE HEAD
OF THE FRENCH SAILORS' DIVISION.
(Times Photo Service.)

LOYAL AMERICANS OF SWISS EXTRACTION
Marching as Ancient Halberdiers, Crusaders, and, in the Background, as Members of the Famous Swiss Guard of Louis XVI, with Cocked Hats and Wigs.
(Times Photo
Service.)

POLICE COMMISSIONER RICHARD E. ENRIGHT AND MAYOR JOHN F. HYLAN IN THE OFFICIAL REVIEWING STAND.
(© International Film Service.)

TROOP OF VENEZUELAN LANCERS LEADING SOUTH AMERICAN DIVISIONS.
(Times Photo Service.)

(Brown Bros.)

POLES AND SLOVAKS, PRE-CEDED BY THEIR WIVES AND CHILDREN, ALL
IN THE COSTUMES OF THEIR FORMER NATIONALITIES, PASSING THE OFFICIAL REVIEWING STAND.
To This Division Was Awarded the First Prize by the Judges of the Mayor's Committee.

SENORITAS MARCHING AT THE HEAD OF THE SPANISH DIVISION.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)