

THE FUNERAL CORTEGE OF MAJOR JOHN PURROY MITCHEL PASSING THE GUARDS OF HONOR ON FIFTH AVENUE, A SHORT DISTANCE BELOW ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, WHERE THE SOLEMN REQUIEM HIGH MASS WAS CELEBRATED.

(Times Photo Service.)

CASKET CONTAINING THE REMAINS OF MAJOR MITCHEL PLACED ON A CAISSON AT THE CITY HALL, the Honorary Pall-Bearers Standing Uncovered on the City Hall Plaza. In the Foreground Are: Cleveland H. Dodge, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jacob H. Schiff, George W. Perkins, Frank L. Polk, Dr. N. M. Butler, and General William A. Mann.

(Times Photo Service.)

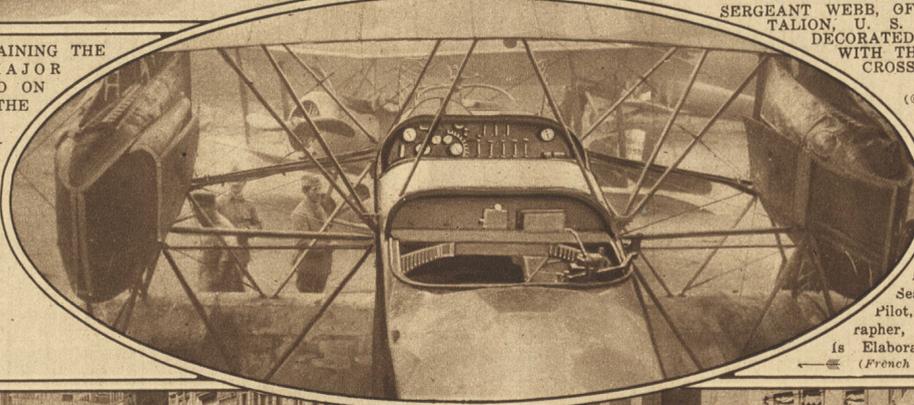

FIRST-CLASS PRIVATE JOHN A. MENEN-HALL, U. S. A., Awarded the French War Cross for Maintaining Communications During a Five-Hour Gas and Artillery Attack on the American Front.

(Photos © Committee on Public Information.)

SERGEANT WEBB, OF A FIELD BATTALION, U. S. SIGNAL CORPS, DECORATED IN A HOSPITAL WITH THE FRENCH WAR CROSS FOR GALLANTRY IN ACTION.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

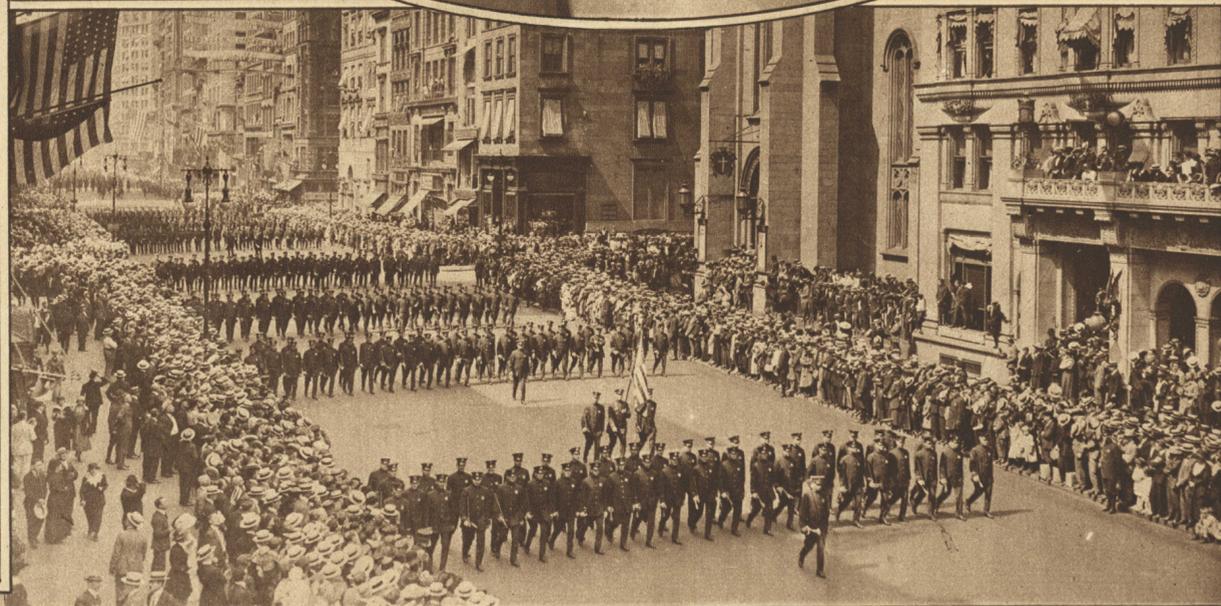

LATEST TYPE OF THE GERMAN BOMBING PLANE, Recently Captured Undamaged in the Marne Sector, with Seating Provisions for Pilot, Observer, Photographer, and Bomber. It is Elaborately Camouflaged.

(French Pictorial Service.)

FUNERAL PROCESSION OF MAJOR MITCHEL, ATTENDED BY AIRPLANES IN BATTLE FORMATION, PASSING THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY.

(© Brown Bros.)

MEMBERS OF THE NEW YORK POLICE FORCE, WITH CLUBS REVERSED, MARCHING ON FIFTH AVENUE IN HONOR OF THE LATE MAYOR.

(Times Photo Service.)