

FRENCH VETERANS MOVING UP TO THE FIRING LINES ON THE WEST FRONT, BRITISH TROOPS, ALSO READY TO ADVANCE, VIEWING THEM FROM THE ROADSIDE.

(© Western Newspaper Union.)

A WAR PRISONERS' BARRACKS AT DARMSTADT, GERMANY, The Men Being Required to Sleep on the Floor, Each Prisoner with His Chair, Made at His Own Expense, Placed at Night at His Feet to Avoid Being Trampled Upon by German Officers of the Day on Inspection Tours.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN FRANCE CONSTRUCTING A BOMB-PROOF SHELTER IN THE REAR OF THEIR QUARTERS.

(Photos © Committee on Public Information.)

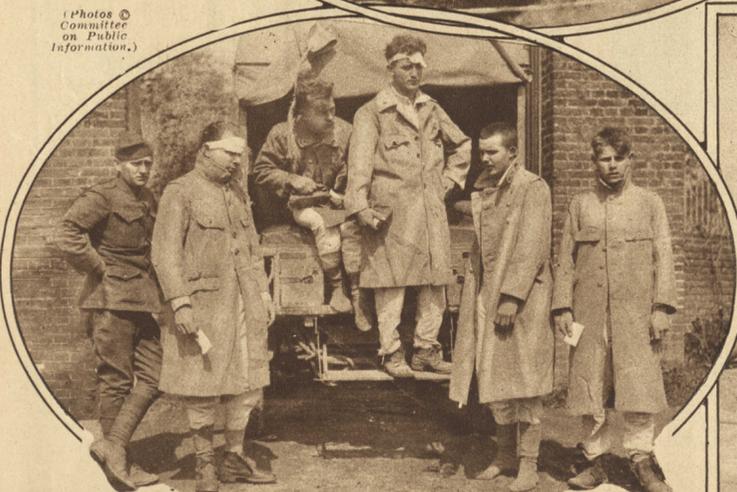

FRENCH OFFICERS QUESTIONING A WOUNDED GERMAN PRISONER JUST BROUGHT IN.

HOMING PIGEONS FASTENED IN THEIR BASKET WITH ELASTIC BANDS, READY TO BE CARRIED INTO THE AMERICAN TRENCHES.

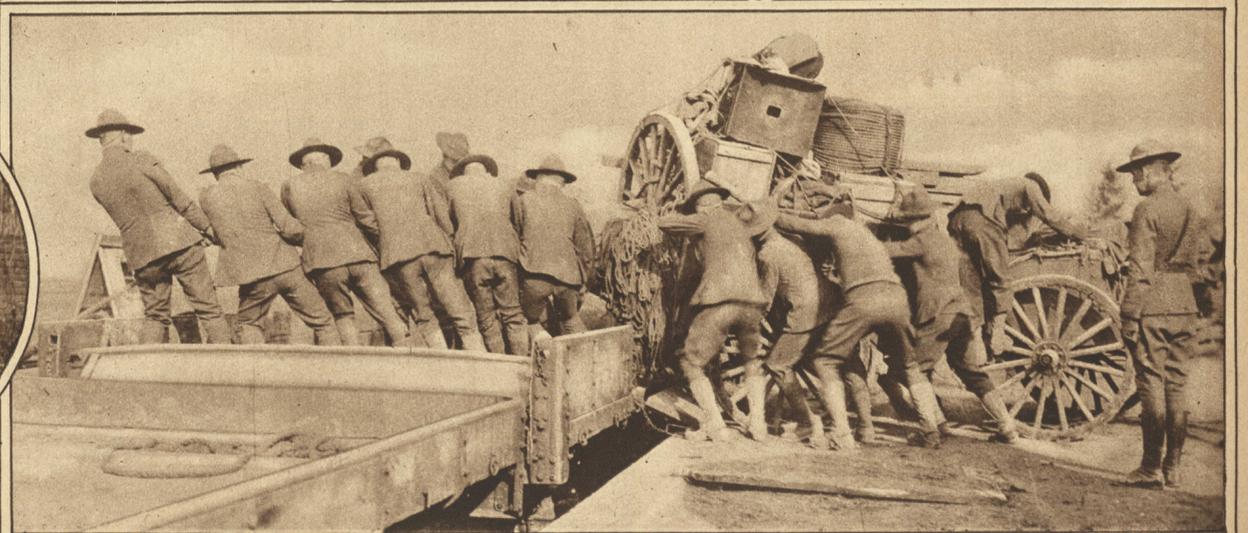

AMERICAN ARTILLERYMEN, IN TRAINING AT FORT SILL, OKLA. MOVING INTO FIRING POSITION A CAMOUFLAGED FRENCH "155" HOWITZER, Drawn Into the Field by an American Artillery Tractor.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, GASED BUT NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED, ARRIVING AT A FIELD HOSPITAL IN FRANCE. From an American Official Photograph.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICAN MARINES LOADING SUPPLY TRAINS ON FLAT CARS PREPARATORY TO LEAVING FOR THE FRONT LINES.