AMERICAN OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND Y. M. C. A. WORKERS ATTENDING A "FETE CHAMPETRE" IN THE GARDENS OF THE AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. HEADQUARTERS IN LYONS, FRANCE.
(International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS, PASSING THROUGH LONDON, STARTING OUT ON A PLEASURE AND SIGHT-SEEING TRIP ON THE THAMES.
(© Central News Service.)

SERGT. STUART ROBSON,
Son of Mrs. Robson, of New York, and the Late Stuart Robson, Actor, Who Has Been Giving a Series of Dramatic Entertainments for His Comrades at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C.

THE SALUTE TO THE FLAG AT SUNRISE STARTS THE DAY AT GREENKILL, THE NEW YORK Y. M. C. A. CAMP NEAR KINGSTON, N. Y.
(Photos by Brown Bros.)

SCENE IN FRONT OF THE OLD HOME OF ROSA BONHEUR,
French Painter of Animals, Bequeathed by Her to Mme. Anna Elizabeth Klumpke, Now Converted by Mme. Klumpke into a Hospital for the Manual Training of Disabled French Soldiers.
From a Photograph Sent by Mme. Klumpke, Who Stands on the Extreme Right in the Picture, to Roland F. Knoedler of New York.

MRS. ISAAC STUART McELROY, JR.,
Formerly Miss Alice Wilson, Niece of President Wilson, Recently Married in the White House
(Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

GREENKILL CAMPERS RECEIVING INSTRUCTION IN BANDAGING AND FIRST AID TO THE INJURED.

SCENE ANY WARM EVENING IN THE GREENKILL SOCIAL LODGE.