

FRENCH CAVALRY, IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE TEUTONS, CROSSING A RIVER BY THE MEANS OF A HASTILY CONSTRUCTED RAFT.
(International Film Service.)

MRS. VINCENT ASTOR, of New York (centre) and Mrs. Henry Potter Russell, Formerly Miss Ethel Harriman, Daughter of Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Waitresses in an American Restaurant at Bordeaux for American Private Soldiers and Sailors.
(Central News Service.)

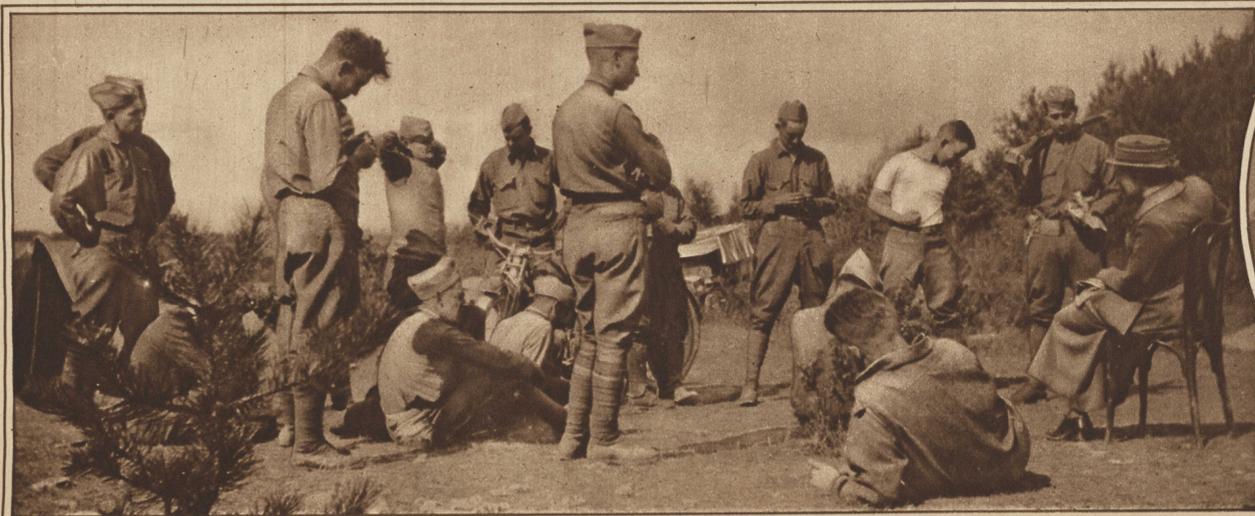

PRINCE MAX OF BADEN, "REFORM" GERMAN CHANCELLOR, IN CONVERSATION WITH GERMAN EXCHANGE PRISONERS WHO HAVE JUST REACHED CONSTANCE, ON LAKE CONSTANCE, BADEN.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

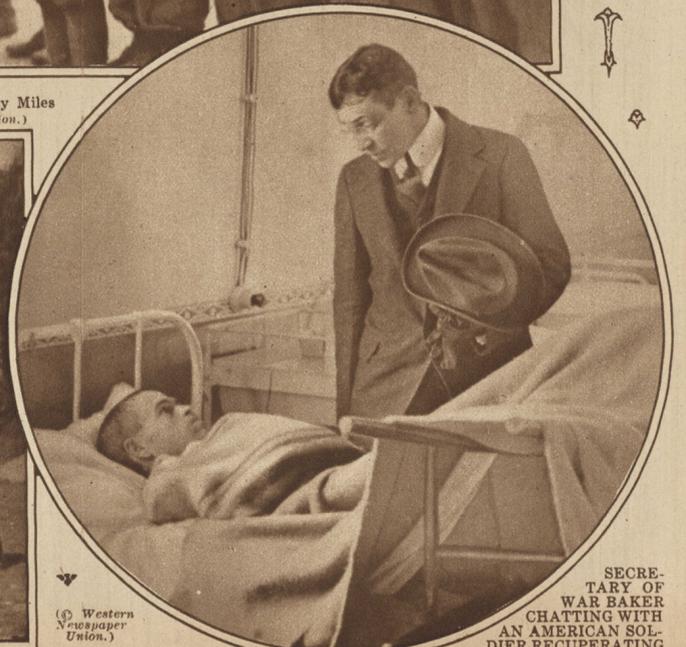

GENERAL DIAZ, Commander in Chief of the Italian Armies, on a Visit to Italian Troops in France. He is Here Shown Chatting with General Hirschauer, an Alsatian Commander of the French.
(© Central News Service.)

NEWTON D. BAKER, SECRETARY OF WAR, AND THE MAYOR OF WINCHESTER, ENGLAND Followed by Major Gen. John Biddle, Commander of the American Forces in England, Inspecting American Troops in Training at Winchester, Sixty Miles Southwest of London.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. WORKER CHATTING WITH AMERICAN SOLDIERS JUST RETURNED FOR REST FROM THE FIGHTING LINES IN LORRAINE.
(International Film Service.)

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER CHATTING WITH AN AMERICAN SOLDIER RECUPERATING FROM HIS WOUNDS IN AN AMERICAN HOSPITAL IN ENGLAND.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)