

THOUSANDS THROG FIFTH AVENUE TO MARCH

MISS LIBERTY, UNCLE SAM, AND THE "GREATEST MOTHER IN THE WORLD" IN THE AMERICAN DIVISION.

(Times Photo Service.)

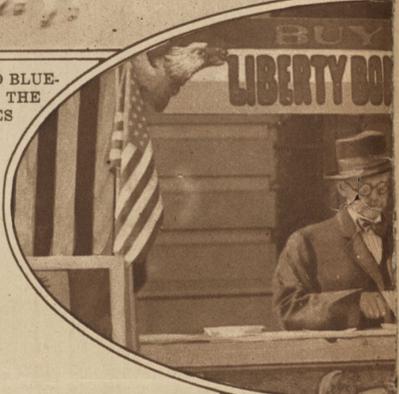

TEN THOUSAND BLUE-JACKETS FROM THE UNITED STATES NAVAL TRAINING STATION AT PELHAM BAY PARK SWINGING DOWN THE "AVENUE OF THE ALLIES" IN THE "COLUMBUS DAY" PARADE FOR THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN.

(International Film Service.)

HEAD OF THE BRAZILIAN DIVISION.

(Central News Photo Service.)

GENERAL ANTOINE Montenegro's First Minister, Speaking for the Altar of Liberty.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

Y. W. C. A. WORKERS PASSING THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY.

(Paul Thompson.)

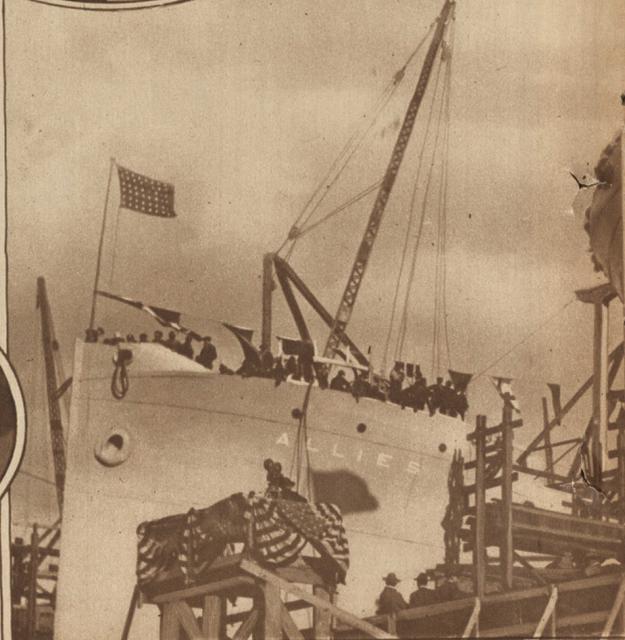

MISS MARY CUSTIS LEE, Only One of General Robert E. Lee's Children Now Living, Knitting for American Soldiers During Her Visit to Hot Springs, Va. Her Little Helpmate Is Walter E. Edge, Jr., Son of the Governor of New Jersey.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

CANTEEN WORKERS OF THE MAYOR'S COMMITTEE FOR WOMAN'S SERVICE AMONG THE MARCHERS.

(International Film Service.)

THE "PAL" SHIPS, ALLIES, AND CONSORT, JUST BEFORE THEY WERE LAUNCHED BY THE NEW YORK SHIPBUILDING CORPORATION, NEWARK.