

FRENCH VETERANS, ARTILLERY SECTION, ON ITS TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO STRASSBOURG, CAPITAL OF ALSACE-LORRAINE, PASSING BEFORE THE IMPERIAL PALACE.

Reviewed by General Gouraud, who can be seen in the left foreground of the picture, on horseback, wearing the French uniform of 1870.
(© Kautel & Herbert.)

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ, PREMIER CLEMENCEAU, AND FRENCH OFFICERS, ON THEIR FIRST VISIT TO STRASSBOURG, SALUTING THE STATUE OF GENERAL KLEBER, OF NAPOLEONIC FAME.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

HEAVY STEEL CHAIN NETTING ABOVE THE ROOF OF THE FORMER GERMAN EMPEROR'S HEADQUARTERS AT CHATEAU RENANDIN.

Charleville, Ardennes, Designed to Explode Prematurely Enemy Airplane Bombs.
(French Pictorial Service.)

THE TRICOLOR OF FRANCE Flying Once More from the Topmost Peaks of the Famous Spire of the Strassbourg Cathedral.

(French Pictorial Service.)

LOYAL LITTLE ALSATIAN GIRL OFF FOR A JOY RIDE IN A FRENCH TROOPER'S SADDLE.

(International Film Service.)

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN ELIZABETH OF THE BELGIANS

Entering in Triumph the City of Liege, First Belgian Stronghold to Fall Before the Invasion of the German Hordes in 1914.
(International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ, with Premier Clemenceau at His Side, Addressing the People of Strassbourg from a Balcony of the City Hall.
(Underwood & Underwood.)