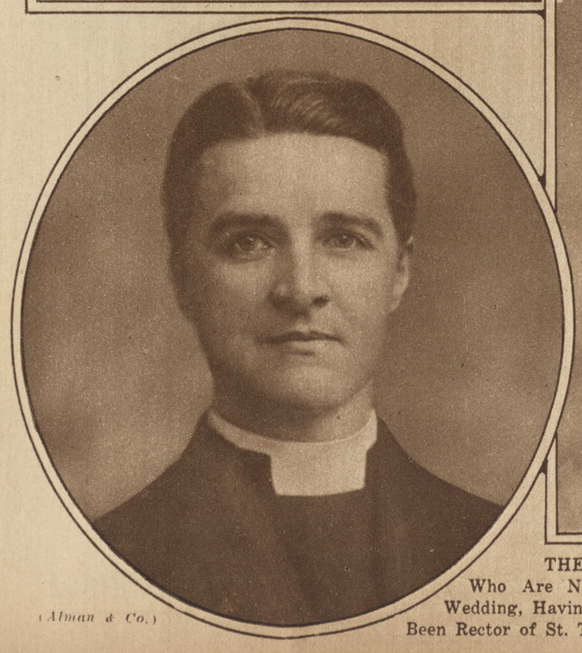
FIELD MARSHAL SIR DOUGLAS HAIG,
on His Return to London, Where He Was Received with an Ovation, Halting in Front of Marlborough House to Receive a Boutonniere from Queen Alexandra. Lady Haig and Daughter Are Standing at the Left.

THE "STARS AND STRIPES," CARRIED BY A VANGUARD OF THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, REACH COBLENZ AND THE RHINE, GERMAN CHILDREN, AFTER THE MANNER OF CHILDREN THE WORLD OVER, FOLLOWING THE SOLDIERS.
(© International Film Service.)

KURT EISNER,
Former Journalist of Munich, and Now People's Minister of Bavaria, on a Visit to Berlin.
(International Film Service.)

LIEUTENANT GEORGE H. LOWE, JR.,
Fordham University Football Star, Who Won a Commission and the French War Cross for Gallantry Under Fire.
(International Film Service.)

GERMAN TROOPS, HOMEWARD BOUND, CROSSING A BRIDGE FROM BELGIUM INTO HOLLAND, DUTCH SOLDIERS DISARMING THEM IMMEDIATELY ON REACHING DUTCH SOIL.
(Moussault.)



(Alman & Co.)

THE REV. DR. AND MRS. ERNEST M. STIRES,
Who Are Now Celebrating the Silver Anniversary of Their Wedding, Having Been Married on Jan. 11, 1894. Dr. Stires Has Been Rector of St. Thomas' Church Since 1901.
(Aime Dupont.)

HEAD OF A DIVISION OF THE FRENCH ARMY OF OCCUPATION CROSSING THE GUTENBERG PLATZ IN MAYENCE, GERMANY, Throngs of German Soldiers, Policemen, Civilians and Children Viewing the Spectacle from the Sidewalks.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

THE BRITISH ARMY OF OCCUPATION CROSSING TO THE RIGHT BANK OF THE RHINE AT COLOGNE, by Means of the Hohenzollern Bridge, Named in Honor of the Former Kaiser Wilhelm II., Whose Equestrian Statue Appears in the Background.
(Underwood & Underwood.)