

EXTRAORDINARY PHOTOGRAPH OF THE HISTORIC MEETING OF GENERAL SIR EDMUND ALLENBY AND GENERAL FRANCHET D'ESPEREY,

Respectively, Captor of Jerusalem, Who Redeemed Palestine from the Turks, and the French Conqueror of Bulgaria, at Scutari, Opposite Constantinople, with the Bosphorus and the Turkish Capital in the Background.

(Photos © French Pictorial Service.)

FRENCHMEN OF ALSACE, FORCED INTO THE GERMAN ARMY, AND NOW LIBERATED, MARCHING BACK INTO STRASBOURG.

THE PONDEROUS AND HEROIC STATUE OF TELGRAVE IN METZ OVERTHROWN WITH SUCH FORCE THAT THE HEAD COMPLETELY BURIED ITSELF IN THE GROUND.

GENERAL JOSEPH T. DICKMAN, COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION AT COBLENZ, GERMANY, with General Mangin and General Ferrand, Reviewing French Troops Associated with the Americans.

CATHERINE DU PONT, to Appear in a Series of "Noh," or Oriental Dances, and Lyric Dramas at the Belmont Theatre.

GENERAL LECOMTE, COMMANDER OF THE FRENCH ARMY OF OCCUPATION, on Assuming the Civil and Military Administration of Wiesbaden, Germany, Delivering His Address of Instructions to the German Burgomaster and City Officials in the Wiesbaden City Hall.

MRS. VERNON CASTLE.

From a Camera Study of the Head Made in London, Where Mrs. Castle Now Is. (© Press Illustrating Service.)