

"CHATHAM SQUARE"—BY COLIN CAMPBELL COOPER,

a New Painting of a Section of Lower Manhattan, Shown in the Current Spring Exhibition of the National Academy of Design.

(Photos Peter Juley.)

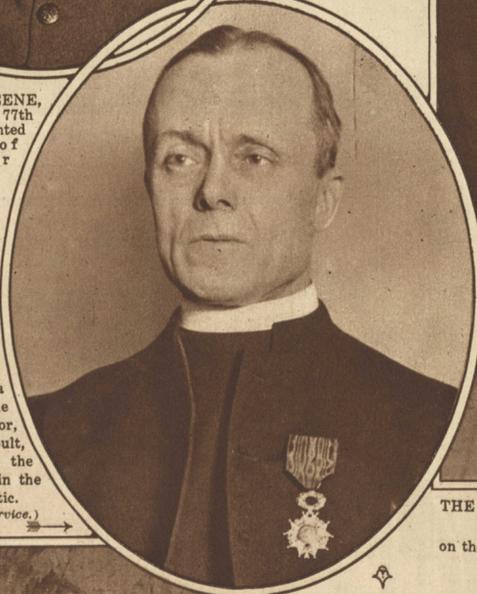

"THE LITTLE GREEN HAT"—BY IRVING R. WILES, to Which Was Awarded the Isaac N. Maynard Prize of $100 for the Best Portrait in the Spring Academy.

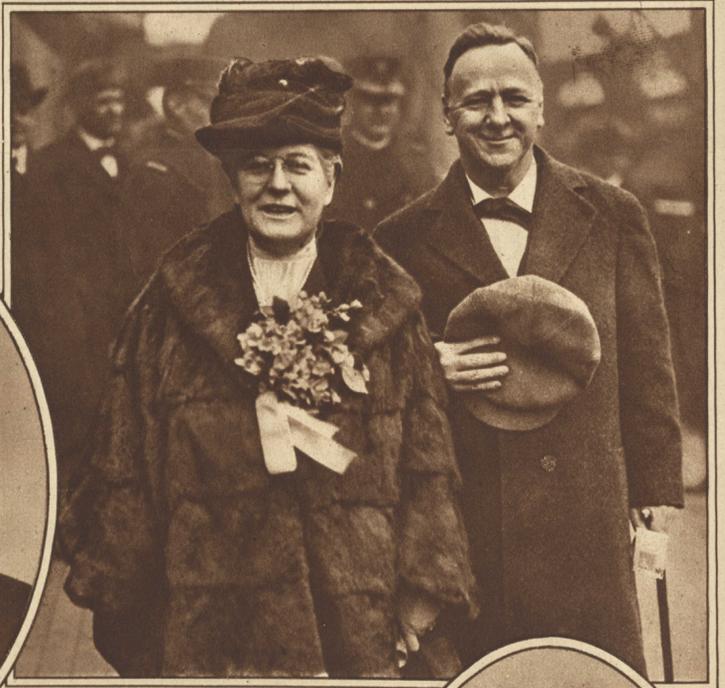

MISS MARION RYDER—BY ERCOLE CARTOTTO, Awarded the Second Julius Hallgarten Prize of $200 by the National Academy of Design.

CAPTAIN FREDERICK STUART GREENE, 302d Engineers, 77th Division, Appointed Commissioner of Highways for New York (Times Photo Service.)

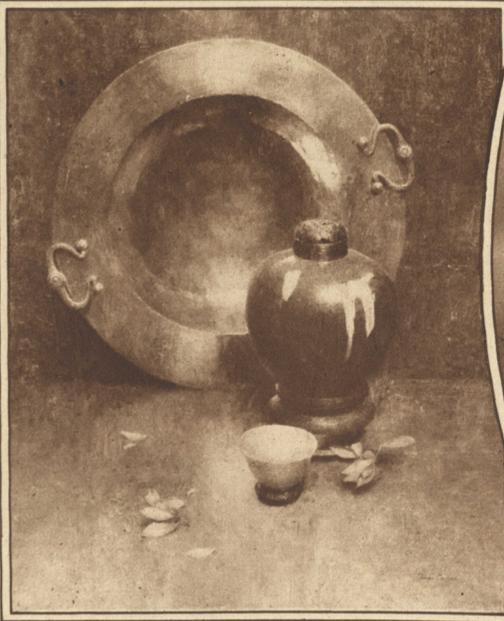

THE REV. DR. WILLIAM T. MANNING, Rector of Trinity Parish, Immediately After His Investiture as a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, by Admiral Groult, Commander of the French Forces in the North Atlantic. (Times Photo Service.)

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY AND MRS. JOSEPHUS DANIELS on the Deck of the Leviathan Just Before Sailing to Europe a Week Ago. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

"THE OLD MILL"—BY E. W. REDFIELD, Awarded the First Altman Prize of $1,000 in the Spring Academy.

"THE JADE BOWL"—BY DINES CARLSEN, 16 Years Old, Son of Emil Carlsen, Artist, Awarded the Third Hallgarten Prize at the Spring Academy. This Is Said to be the First Time in the History of the National Academy of Design, Organized in 1825, Where a Prize Has Been Given to an Exhibitor as Young as 16 Years. (Peter Juley.)

MISS BARBARA KERLEY, Debutante Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore Kerley, Whose Engagement to Lieutenant Henry Arthur Hutchins, U. S. R., Has Been Announced. (Metchin.)