

THE R-34, GIANT BRITISH DIRIGIBLE, ARRIVING AT THE PULHAM AERODROME, NORFOLK COUNTY, ENGLAND, ON HER RETURN TRIP FROM NEW YORK.

OVAL INSET: The R-34 an Hour After Her Arrival at Pulham from Her Transatlantic Flight to New York, Snugly Tucked Away in the Pulham Aerodrome Beside Her Sister Ship of the Air, the R-33.
(Photos © Keystone View Company, Central News.)

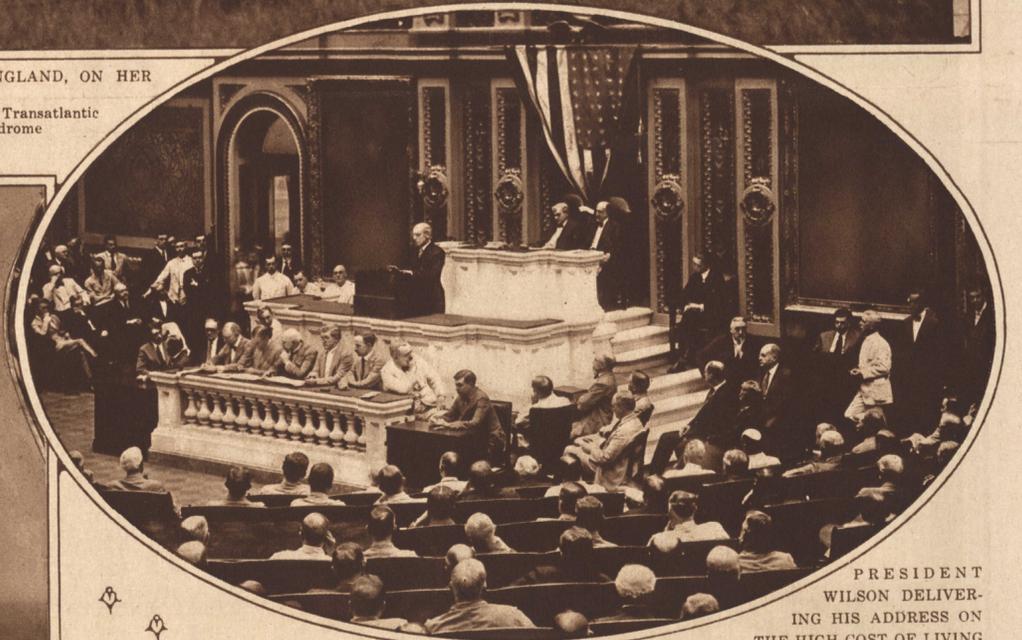

PREMIER GEORGES CLEMENCEAU of the French Republic Rewarding a Fair Alsatian Who Brought Him Flowers at a Recent Paris Fete.
(Central News.)

GLENN E. PLUMB, Attorney for the Railroad Brotherhoods, and Author of the Plan for the Nationalization of American Railroads.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MIRIAM SEARS in "A Regular Fellow," at the Cort Theatre.
(Geisler & Andrews.)

PRESIDENT WILSON DELIVERING HIS ADDRESS ON THE HIGH COST OF LIVING AND ITS REMEDY BEFORE A JOINT SESSION OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
(© Buck, from Keystone Photo News.)

EXCITING FINISH OF THE HALF-MILE CANOE RACE, REVIVED AT ST. JOHN'S, QUEBEC, After a Suspension for Three Years, Due to the War, the Parkdale Canoe Club of Toronto Winning by a Nose.
(© Keystone View Company.)

PRAGUE, CAPITAL OF THE NEW REPUBLIC OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA, CELEBRATES FOR THE FIRST TIME THE ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE by a Parade, with the Stars and Stripes at Its Head, Along the Banks of the River Moldau, the Legionnaires Bridge Appearing in the Foreground, and, in the Background, the Capitol Buildings.
(© International Film Service.)