

RETURNED NEW BRUNSWICK SOLDIERS AND THEIR SWEETHEARTS Waving Greetings to the Prince of Wales from the Cabin Roof of Their Harbor Craft.

(© Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRINCE OF WALES, Attending a Reception at Rothesay, Home of Governor William Pugsley of New Brunswick, Immediately After He Had Set Foot on Canadian Soil, Pausing, When the Entertainment Was at Its Height, to Take a Swift Glance at Some Pretty Girls Dancing in a Pavilion Nearby. But the Prince Is Only 25. Others with the Prince on the Balcony Are Governor Pugsley and the Duke of Devonshire, Governor General of Canada.

(© Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRINCE PRESENTING THE FLAG OF THE EMPIRE TO THE COLOR BEARER OF THE 26TH NEW BRUNSWICK REGIMENT, JUST RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS.

(© Times Wide World Photos.)

THE HEIR TO THE BRITISH THRONE Addressing the 26th New Brunswick Regiment on Barrack Square, St. John, N. B., Incidentally Reminding Them That the First Time He Had Met Them Was on the Battle Line in France.

(© Times Wide World Photos.)

THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON HIS ARRIVAL AT ST. JOHN, N. B., DECORATING WITH THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL CORPORAL C. A. MARLEY, Who Distinguished Himself at Arras, France, the Ceremony Being Witnessed by Premier Borden, Standing at the Extreme Left, and Other Canadian Notables.

(© Times Wide World Photos.)