

ACRES OF AMERICAN MOTOR CARS, NUMBERING MANY THOUSANDS, BROUGHT TOGETHER AT LE MANS, FRANCE, to be Sold by the United States to the French Government—a Panoramic View Taken from an American Army Airplane.

MEMBERS OF THE ITALIAN POPULATION OF FIUME, Adriatic Port Recently Seized by Gabriele d'Annunzio, Warrior Poet, Called the Italian d'Artagnan, Making an Enthusiastic Demonstration in Front of the Fiume City Hall for Union with Italy. (© International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON, His Automobile Fairly Covered with Floral Tributes from Admiring Californians, Responding to the Enthusiastic Reception Given Him in San Francisco. (Underwood & Underwood.)

PRESIDENT WILSON'S FIGHTING FACE TURNED TO THE FOES OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. From a Close-Up Camera Study of the President Made at San Francisco During His Invasion of the Home State of Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Arch Foe of the Nations' League. (© International Film Service.)

MRS. THOMAS R. MARSHALL, Wife of the Vice President, and Their Adopted Son, Marcin, at Atlantic City. (Times Wide World Photos.)

THE APPEAL OF THE RED CROSS TO ALL AMERICA: A POSTER to be Distributed Throughout the United States for the Third Annual Red Cross Roll Call Campaign of Nov. 2-11.

AUSTRALIAN VETERANS WHO FOUGHT BEFORE JERUSALEM, IN EGYPT, GALLIPOLI, FRANCE, AND BELGIUM, AND WHO HAVE ACCEPTED THE INVITATION OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT TO STUDY THE LATEST FARMING METHODS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES. Just Arrived in This Country, They Include One Major, Four Captains, Sixteen Lieutenants, Five Warrant Officers, and Forty Non-Commissioned Officers. Among the Decorated Men Are: Captain Yates, D. S. O.; Captain Laver, Military Cross; Lieutenant Gordon, D. S. M.; Lieutenant Wiston, M. C.; Lieutenant Williams, M. C.; Lieutenant Wiggins, Military Medal; Sergeant Gilmore, M. M.; Corporal Patten, M. M.; Corporal McKay, M. M.; Company Sergeant Major Bull, M. M. (From Times Wide World Photos.)