

"LITERARY MAN LUNATCHARSKY," AS A COMMISSARY OF EDUCATION IN THE CABINET OF PREMIER LENIN, HEAD OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF RUSSIA, IS OFFICIALLY CALLED, Engaged in Reconstructing and Rewriting All Textbooks Used in the Soviet Schools, Is Here Shown Reading to His Official Staff His Version of Goethe's "Faust" for Their Approval Before Its Release for Study by Russia's Young Generation. (International Film Service.)

GERMAN SOLDIERS OPERATING WITH ARMORED MOTOR CARS IN BOGUTSCHUETZ, A VILLAGE OF SILESIAN PRUSSIA.

(From Underwood & Underwood.)

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ, ON HIS RECENT VISIT OF STATE TO THE "LOST PROVINCES," NOW REDEEMED, a Veritable Target for Flowers Thrown by the Little Children of Thionville, Lorraine, Now No Longer the German Dienenhofen. (International Film Service.)

GERMAN TROOPS, IN SILESIA, HERDING AND DRIVING TO THE LOCK-UPS NATIVES WHOM THEY HAVE ARRESTED, the Prisoners Being Required to Hold Their Hands Clasped Behind Their Heads. (Times Wide World Photos.)

SCENE IN FRONT OF THE NATIONAL THEATRE AT WEIMAR, GERMANY, During the Recent Inauguration of President Friedrich Ebert, a Military Band Playing National Airs for the Entertainment of Those Unable to Find Seats in the Building. (Times Wide World Photos.)

KING ALFONSO XIII OF SPAIN INSPECTING THE CRUISER EXTREMADINA OF THE SPANISH FLEET ASSEMBLED IN THE OUTER HARBOR OF SANTANDER. (Times Wide World Photos.)

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

QUEEN VICTORIA EUGENIA OF SPAIN

Dipping Up Crabs from the Deck of the Spanish Royal Yacht, Cruising in the Waters of Santander, Where the King and Queen, with Their Children, Are Spending the Early Fall Days.