

A $5,000,000 FIRE IN SOUTH—THE BORDER PREPARES FOR RAID.

A view of a part of the fire-swept district of Augusta, Ga., after the conflagration of March 23 last. The loss was $5,000,000 and three thousand persons were made homeless.

Underwood & Underwood.

Placing artillery in position at El Paso in preparation for a Mexican foray. U. S. cities on the Mexican border are in constant fear of attack.

International News Service.

One of the field wireless outfits in use by the U. S. troops which are chasing Villa. This is General Pershing's chief means of quick communication with General Funston.

Underwood & Underwood.

An army transport train arriving at one of the bases established by General Pershing's force in Mexico.

International Film Service.