Porch Life and Porch Comfort

June—famed for Brides and Roses—is the time to decide "How shall we furnish our outdoor living room?"

From now on the porch or outdoor living room becomes the one place where the home-folk spend much of their time until the shortening days shall silently announce the passing of summer.

The problem of furnishing YOUR porch—be it modest or pretentious—so as to make it cozy and attractive—is easily solved by the use of CREX Grass Rugs; the logical and almost indispensable porch covering.

CREX rugs are made in beautiful blues, greens, browns and combination color effects, in sizes that will fit most any space. They are not affected by rain or dampness; lie flat and will not "curl" at the edges and are heavy enough to withstand ordinary gusts of wind.

The use of CREX rugs is by no means confined to the porch. More and more each year their use is becoming general throughout the house. They are equally well adapted for the living room, dining room, hall and bedrooms; in fact, any place where rugs can be used. For indoors in summer they are a most sensible investment, saving as they do the wear and tear on expensive coverings, which can be cleaned and stored during the hot months.

A genuine CREX rug is easily identified, the name C-R-E-X is woven in the edge of the side binding. We advise you to look for this name when you buy. It will not only protect you against imitations, but will also insure you the fullest satisfaction.

CREX rugs are patented under U. S. Govt. Copyright. Dealers found guilty of wilful substitution or fraudulent misrepresentation will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Our handsomely illustrated 32-page color catalogue "DISTINCTIVE RUGS and FURNITURE" will be mailed free—upon request. Ask for Catalogue No. 47.
