

In the World of Sports, on Land and Water

Seth Low, captain of Yale's first varsity crew, which yesterday fought with Harvard for supremacy at New London.

HARVARD'S NEW LONDON FIRST VARSITY IN ACTION—Left to right—Kreger, coxswain; Lund, stroke; Quimby, No. 7; Middendorf, No. 6; Coolidge, No. 5; Taylor, No. 4; Talcott, No. 3; Morgain (captain), No. 2; Cabot, bow.

H. F. L. Kreger, coxswain of the Harvard first varsity and his megaphone headdress.

Miss Georgianna M. Bishop, winner of the women's metropolitan golf championship at Short Hills, N. J., held the week of June 15 girls enjoy hockey at Central Park.

A CONTRAST IN GOLFING FORM—Left to right—Marston, Kirkby, Travers and Topping at the finish of a stroke. Marston and Kirkby are using brassies; Travers and Topping, irons.

AN EMBRYO CHAMPION—The daughter of David F. Shay, of the Baltusrol Golf Club, is an earnest student of the ancient and honorable game.

THE SONS OF ELI IN THE NEW LONDON RACE—Stroke, Lawrence; 7, Meyer; 6, Kositsky; 5, Sturtevant; 4, Sheldon; 3, Captain Seth Low; 2, Whitney; bow, Harriman; coxswain, Lasher