

NEW YORK PREPARES FOR WAR WITH MEXICO.

THE TENTH CAVALRY IN MEXICO—A detachment of the Tenth Cavalry on the march during a scouting trip. Some of these troopers may have been among those who were killed or wounded at Carrizal. On the white horse is Lieutenant H. A. Meyers, jr., who picked up the troopers carrying Captain Morey's story of the fight.

©Underwood & Underwood.

SENT TO THE RESCUE OF THE 10TH CAVALRY—The 11th Cavalry outside Bastillo, Mexico, after searching it for Villa's Lieutenant, Pablo Lopez. The 11th was sent to the rescue of the 10th after the ambush at Carrizal and for many hours fears were entertained that it had been caught in a trap.

Exclusive photograph taken by Robert Dunn, The Tribune's special correspondent with General Pershing.

GOODBYE TO WIFE AND BABIES—Many such scenes as this were enacted when the men of the 7th, 14th, 71st and 47th Regiments started direct from their armories for the United States-Mexico border.

©International Film Service.

RED CROSS PREPARES FOR WAR AT HOME—At headquarters in Fifth Avenue American Red Cross women are making bandages for the soldiers who may be called on to fight in Mexico. Women who wish to aid their country at this critical stage can do so by joining the Red Cross.

©International Film Service.

The 69th Regiment at Field Mass among the daisies at Camp Whitman.

©Underwood & Underwood.

WAR BRIDES AT THE CITY HALL—The President's call for the National Guard to go to the border hastened many weddings. A 12th Regiment private and his fiancée are here seen receiving a box of wedding cake from a suffrage worker at the Marriage License Bureau.

©Underwood & Underwood.