

ONE OF THE BRITISH OFFICERS WHO SURVIVED THE NORTH SEA BATTLE—Commander H. E. Dannreuther of

the Invincible was one of the five saved from the battle-cruiser sunk by the German fleet. He clung to a life raft when the ship went down and was picked up by the British Main Fleet. Photo from Janet M. Cummings.

HARVARD WINNING THE FIRST VARSITY RACE FROM YALE AT NEW LONDON—The Eli eight was outclassed, and what little chance they had was lost when their shell hit the 2-mile stake. All three of Harvard's crews won their races against Yale. © Underwood & Underwood.

The exterior of the summer home of Charles E. Hughes at Bridgehampton, L. I. © Bain News Service.

One of the family bedrooms in the Hughes summer home. © Bain News Service.

The Summer Mecca for Republicans Will Be Bridgehampton, L. I.

The parlor of the Hughes home at Bridgehampton, L. I.

Mr. Hughes's den in his Bridgehampton home. © Bain News Service.

NEWARK BABIES AND MATRONS ON PARADE—As a part of the six months' 250th Newark anniversary celebration more than 300 babies and their mothers were received by the City Fathers. © Underwood & Underwood.

Arthur W. Lawrence, of Bronxville, N. Y., who is a candidate for Congressman from the 24th District. Photo by Pach Bros.