HOTELS. HOTEL ANSONIA
 Broadway, 73d to 74th Street, Overlooking the Hudson River

The HOTEL ANSONIA is 17 stories high, is open on all four sides and every room is an outside room. We have a few medium and large size housekeeping apartments suitable for families or for parties of business men wishing to live together, which will be rented by the year or for the season unfurnished or fully furnished, with or without full hotel service, including electric light and artificial refrigeration, thus enabling patrons to have their meals served from the Hotel in their own private dining-rooms with great comfort.

We also have a limited number of non-housekeeping apartments of two and three rooms with private bath, which will be rented on yearly lease or for the season, either unfurnished or fully furnished, with full hotel service.

Our rentals are moderate and our service is of the highest order.

Our cuisine is dainty, the prices reasonable, and we make a specialty of serving Club breakfasts or breakfasts a la carte in the apartments without extra charge for service.

A complete Turkish Bath and Hydro-Therapy Establishment is now in operation, including a well equipped Gymnasium and a very large Swimming Pool, the water in which is purified by the Ultra Violet Rays and constantly being changed. The Hotel is situated two blocks from Riverside Drive and Central Park, and the Subway Express Station and all surface car lines and the Riverside buses are at our door.

 300 Rooms. 225 Baths. Every Bathroom Has Tub and Shower.

The prestige of a hotel no longer depends upon a mere name, surrounded by a fictitious atmosphere of aristocracy. The only aristocracy in hotels now is an aristocracy of merit. It is the character of the service which sheds lustre on the name.

The Manhattan Square Hotel—not the name which confers lustre on the service.

Social distinction marks the residents. It is conferred by the residents themselves—for the guests are the discriminating ones, those who have tried all and now make this their home.

Our Restaurant is one of those patronized by people who can afford to pay more, but prefer this one for what it is and serves. Quiet, dignified, and of excellence unsurpassed.
