HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK
 Broadway at 77th St.
 Surface Cars at Door
 Subway at 79th St.
 Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The Belleclaire is a very comfortable home these days. The lobby is a big living room which guests enjoy. It is furnished with bright rugs, easy chairs and settles. The lights are soft. The orchestra plays in this room and it is a very good orchestra. There is no rushing around—people bumping into each other. There is conversation and laughter and good cheer, just as in the living room of a private house where friends meet to spend the time socially. Look in some evening—have dinner and see how contented we all are. A great deal of our contentment is due to good meals. There is nothing like a square meal to keep everybody in good humor. We have a corner in this big room where some old-timers congregate—men who have been dubbed "The Ameners." But they are good fellows at that. They enjoy themselves by seeing others enjoy themselves. All and all we have a pretty happy home here.
 ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
