Harry S. New, Republican Senator from Indiana, succeeding John W. Kern, Democrat.

Hiram W. Johnson, Republican (Progressive) Senator from California, to succeed John D Works, Republican.

NEWCOMERS TO THE SENATE

Sixteen Who Donned the Toga on March Fourth

Photos Copyright International Film Service.

Josiah O. Wolcott, Democratic Senator from Delaware, to succeed H. A. du Pont, Republican.

Peter Goelet Gerry, Rhode Island's first Democratic Senator in years, who follows H. F. Lippitt, Republican.

Photo by Paul Thompson.

Kenneth D. McKellar, Democratic Senator from Tennessee, replacing Luke Lea. Democrat.

Joseph I. France, Republican, from Maryland, who follows Blair Lee, Democrat.

Frank B. Kellogg, Republican Senator from Minnesota, taking the chair of Moses E. Clapp, Republican.

Frederick Hale, Republican Senator from Maine, who takes the place of Charles F. Johnson, Democrat.

Howard Sutherland, Republican, from West Virginia, succeeding W. E. Chilton, Democrat.

A. A. Jones, Democrat, from New Mexico, taking the chair of Thomas B. Catron, Republican.

William H. King, Democratic Senator from Utah, succeeding George Sutherland, Republican.

Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Republican, from New Jersey, who follows Senator James E. Martine, Democrat.

Park Trammell, Democratic Senator from Florida, following Nathan P. Bryan, Democrat.

John B. Kendrick, Democrat, the new arrival from Wyoming, who succeeds Clarence D. Clark, Republican.

William M. Calder, Republican, takes the place of James A. O'Gorman, Democrat, as New York's new Senator.

Philander C. Knox, Republican Senator from Pennsylvania, who succeeds George T. Oliver, Republican.