

Below—The American sea-warrior Wisconsin en route through the Culebra Cut, Panama Canal, to join the Atlantic fleet.

Photo Central News Service

After the fire and riots in the Joliet Prison, Guardsmen searched the prisoners for captives were forced to face the wall with their backs to the wall.

Above, the man who runs Plattsburg, Col. Wolf (x), with his daughter, and Capt. Baer, just photographed at the Training Camp.

Exclusive Photo Press Illustrating Service

To the right—Washday on the land-battleship Recruit, now docked off 14th Street and Broadway. No laundry bills count in the lives of these land-seamen.

Photo Bain News Service

Women are now monopolizing all the office jobs at the Vacuum Oil quarters on lower Broadway. They have been equipped with caps lettered with their positions, and present a new and picturesque phase of war readjustments.

Photo Greeley Service

American troops arrive at last in a group of regulars, with their mascots home where they are billeted.

The smallest soldiers who attended the annual garden party at Governor's Island. They are the grandsons of Lawrence B. Kemp, Kemp and Billy Galliter.

Photo Kadet & Herbert

Columbia confers degrees on Mayor Bishop Brent of the Philippines (2) Marconi (3) at this year's commencement.

Photo © United