

Here is fifteen-year-old Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, Ga., the new Southern golf champion. He is a member of the East Lake Club of Atlanta.

Photo Kadet & Herbert

A.T. Bedell, at the end of his record-breaking cross-continent trip by motorcycle. He carried a message from Los Angeles to General Bell at Governor's Island in 7 days 16 1/4 hours.

Photo Spooner & Wells

Princeton is teaching trench building in a thorough and efficient manner, as is shown above. The trenches are complete, replicas, sandbags and all, of the great systems on the Western front.

Photo Central News Service

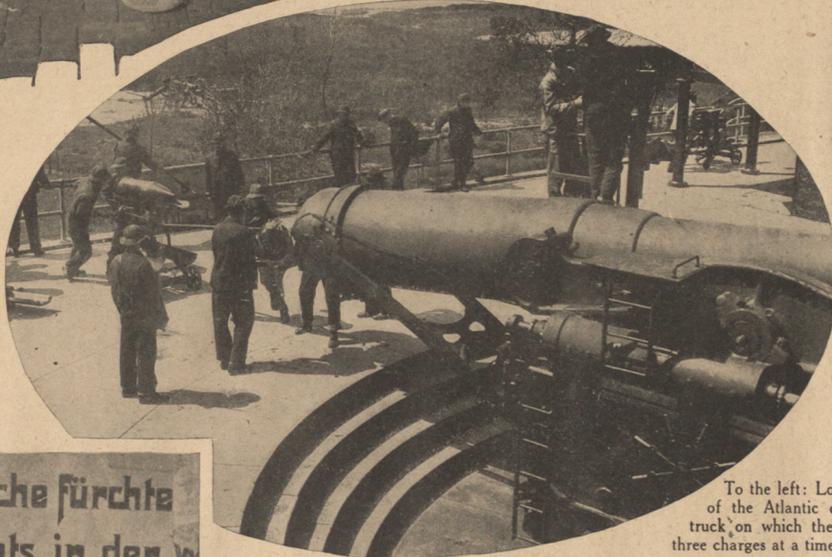

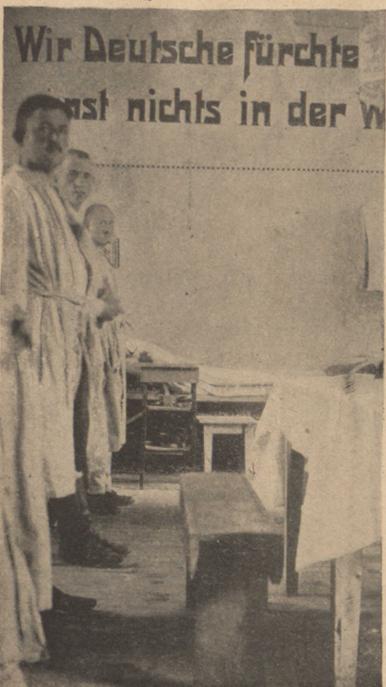

The Rifle Club of Forest Hills, 180 strong, shown above, preparing for drill.

Photo Kadet & Herbert

The French found the legend below in many places in recaptured towns. This hospital decoration reads: "We Germans fear God and nothing else in the world."

Photo Warning

To the left: Loading one of the big defenders of the Atlantic coast, disappearing type. The truck on which the shells are transported carries three charges at a time.

Exclusive Photo © American Press Association

The American uniform is well known in Toronto, as many of the men from Fort Niagara have crossed the lake on week-end excursions. Above is a vessel-load leaving the Canadian city after being received by the Mayor.

Photo Press Illustrating Service

Belgian soldiers putting their heavy field pieces in place just before a drive—evidence that Belgium is still alive.

Photo Kadet & Herbert