

The Emperors of Germany and Austria met at Görz to discuss the Italian campaign. This snapshot was taken after the two Emperors had been to the front. Görz is a city of eventful history, twenty-two miles from Trieste, on the Isonzo. King Ferdinand of Bulgaria was also at the conference. © Theodore Mousault.

Italian reinforcements on the Piave. Kadel & Herbert

Hut used as Italian headquarters near the Piave. Kadel & Herbert. Official Italian.

U. S. Army nurses attending a complimentary French course which Fordham University has organized for those in the United States service. Lectures are held daily, and about three hundred students are attending the classes each week. Tribune Service

British dressing station near the front line trenches. © Underwood & Underwood.

Training in bayonet work at Camp Meade, Maryland. International Film.