

Buckwheat

approved

BUCKWHEAT is approved! The great American breakfast is "endorsed" by the Food Administration. Now think of the difference between buckwheat batter—and a pile of golden brown, flaky, buckwheat cakes! Oh, say! Cooking does the trick. Same with tobacco; it's more appetizing cooked. Try Lucky Strike Cigarette—it's toasted.

Only a few minutes from the shopping and theatrical District.

Our Thanksgiving Dinner this year will be as always, a very simple, home-like affair. There will be plenty to eat, but the menu will list only the good old-fashioned dishes that all of us enjoy so much. The tables will be set, as always, in home fashion. The linen, the dishes, the silverware, the vase of flowers, will invite and cheer you.

If there are in New York (there must be thousands of them) men and women who cannot get back home for Thanksgiving Dinner, I hope to have the pleasure of entertaining as many of them as I can, and I promise to give them their fill of the same good things that they would get in their own home.

Our dinner starts at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and will continue until as late at night as our patrons desire.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN,
Proprietor.
