HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.
Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Next Tuesday night at 12 o'clock the bells will ring and usher in 1919.

The year 1918 has been wonderful—but 1919, in our judgment, will begin the greatest era in the world's history.

Millions of people have been saddened by the events of the past four years—but they must look ahead and join all other millions in the rebuilding of the world.

There is a great work to be done, and the surest way to master the tragedies of life is to work.

There has been established a bond of sympathy among all peoples that never existed before — therefore we are all in readiness to do our share toward the rebuilding. It is a case of all of us pulling together.

So far as the business of this hotel is concerned—a small unit in the universe—I want to say to you that my associates and myself propose to do everything in our power to make it as successful as possible and to make it serve honestly and satisfactorily all of our customers. It is only by every one doing his level best that we'll build business on prosperous lines.

Now let us go to it.

Happy New Year to everybody!

Robert D. Blackman.
