"Ulllo! get these Better'Ole Song Hits"

If you want to know why "The Better 'Ole," after two years in London, is now being played by five companies to crowded houses all over America---remember the man who said "Music Hath Charm."

He said it! Music---the wonderful "Better 'Ole" music---has charm to cure the blues and lighten the heart, has charm to spread the smile and fire the eye, has charm to play a big part in making thousands of audiences surrender unconditionally to the winsome, delightful melodies, the keen wit and beautiful sentiment of the "Better 'Ole."

Now you can have these "Better 'Ole" songs in your own home---

---You can get the sheet music wherever good music is sold, or direct from the publisher at 35c a copy.

"When You Look In The Heart of a Rose" Florence Methven
REFRAIN
Dear lit-tle rose, with your heart of gold, Dear lit-tle rose, may your pe-tals fold, My se-cret sweet I will trust you to keep, Deep in your heart 'twill re- pose. No one will know what your leaves con-veal, No one will guess what they could re-veal, You will know then, that I love you dear. When you look in the heart of a rose.

Captain Milne Singing "WHEN YOU LOOK IN THE HEART OF A ROSE" Scene 5

"Better 'Ole Songs"
"When You Look in the Heart of a Rose"
--- a lovable song of an old sentiment in a waltz melody all its own.
"My Word! Ain't We Carrying On"
It's full of real wit, live, swinging melody and peppery words.
"Tommy, You're a Nice Boy"
that pretty, saucy little "Better 'Ole" song Suzette sings.
"She's Venus de Milo to Me"
"I Wish I Was in Blighty"
"Trip Across the Rhine"
"A Little Regiment of Your Own"

"Tommy" Herman Darewski
CHORUS Not fast
Tom - my, you are a nice boy, Tom - my, I like you so: If all the Eng - lish are like you, There I must ver - y quick - ly go. For I like you so Tom - my, In on - ly jok - ing, I would nt cross the sea. But I would like to hear you say, That there's not a nic - er girl in France than me.
