

"Hickory" is a pony of wide experience. Captured from the Germans and adopted as mascot by the 113th Field Artillery, he has recently arrived in this country a thoroughly loyal American.

General Photo News

Right—"Red Cloud" champion homing pigeon of the world, with the remarkable long-distance record of 535 miles in 10 hours 35 minutes.

General Photo News

Left—Another champion is "Peerless Pilot," only eleven months old, who averaged three messages a day during the last month of the war.

General Photo News

"Old Faithful" carried his mistress to Southern France when the invading Huns drove her out a refugee and has since hauled her back to what remains of her home village. He is the only companion left to her.

Western Newspaper Union

"Cytade Derfla," Belgian police dog and war hero, served three years in the trenches with the Belgian army and wears two wound stripes. He has just come to America and is to reap his reward in a good home provided him by a society girl who adopted him.

The Keystone View

Hesitating to take the plunge, this oil tanker, torpedoed off the Spanish coast, remained on end in this position two days before the final dive.

Underwood & Underwood

Not the gnome scene from "Rip Van Winkle," but a few of the 500 ancient statues of Rakan, the disciples of Buddha, in a Japanese temple garden.

Keystone View

An excellent picture of the Prince of Wales, an interested spectator at the recent review of the Young Guard in Hyde Park. His Royal Highness wears a band of mourning for his brother, Prince John.

Underwood & Underwood

An American doughboy in Coblenz inspects a Hun monument in the Rhenish city commemorating the Prussian victory over France in 1871.

Paul Thompson

H. M. S. New Zealand enters Portsmouth Harbor and passes the Victory, famous flagship of the famous Nelson. Admiral Jellicoe is about to sail on the New Zealand for a long tour of the British dominions.

Western Newspaper Union

H. M. S. New Zealand wearing her war honors, proud record of her prowess in battle during the Great War. She is one of the newer and most powerful ships in the British fleet.

Western Newspaper Union