ROME QUALITY

ROMELINK SWINGING COUCH HAMMOCKS

Romelink Swinging Couch Hammocks possess exclusive features unobtainable in similar articles of furniture. In every detail, like the other Rome products—beds and bed springs, couch beds and cots—they measure up to the fine high standard of Rome quality.

It is a standardized excellence, trademarked and labeled for your protection and ours.

Mark the perfect development of the hammock. Their deep upholstery is covered with richly colored materials, protected from the weather by the new Cravenette Finish.

They are generously proportioned—full 28 inches wide, 72 inches long. Low Romelink arm rests are another exclusive feature.

Available in the materials demanded by your summer color scheme, Romelink models are now on sale at the better department, house furnishing and sporting goods stores.

How the Front Drain Protects Health

Health demands that the drain and trap of a refrigerator be cleaned frequently. In its usual location, at the back of the refrigerator, the drain is hard to get at—the food must be removed, a time-wasting nuisance. So back drains are cleaned all too seldom.

In a Bohn Refrigerator, the drain is in front. It can be lifted out in one piece, without disturbing shelves or food. To cleanse it thoroughly and return it requires but a few seconds.

Every detail of construction of the world-famous

BOHN SYPHON REFRIGERATOR

proves its superiority—the Siphon System of rapid circulation of cold pure, dry air, which prevents contamination and mingling of odors; the 10-layer, heat-resisting walls (including FLAXALINUM, the one perfect insulation); the one-piece, round-cornered, non-cracking lining of porcelain fused into steel. (Look out for cheap painted tin substitutes for genuine porcelain.)

This year ice probably will be the highest price ever known. The Bohn Siphon Refrigerator is a great ice saver. That's one reason why the railroads, dining cars (in every tent), great hotels, etc., use the Bohn System. The domestic refrigerators are built on the same scientific principle.

Bohn Refrigerators here in great variety, $19 up. Call, write or phone.
