Officers Who Have Deserved Well of Their Country

MAJOR GEN. BEAUMONT B. BUCK, commanding 3d Division of the 5th Army Corps.

MAJOR GEN. FRANK McINTYRE,
Executive Assistant to Chief of Staff U. S. Army.

MAJOR GEN. CHARLES H. MUIR, commanding 28th Division of Pennsylvania troops.

MAJOR GEN. EDGAR RUSSELL, has rendered distinguished service in U. S. Signal Corps.

MAJOR GEN. WILLIAM L. SIBERT, organizer and administrator Chemical Warfare Service.
(© Harris & Ewing.)

MAJOR GEN. GEORGE BELL, JR., commanding 33d Division of 3d Army Corps.

MAJOR GEN. CHARLES G. BALLOU, commanding 92d Division, composed of colored troops.

MAJOR GEN. WILLIAM H. HAY, promoted from command of 134th Infantry Brigade.

MAJOR GEN. JOHN BIDDLE, of Engineer Corps and Assistant Chief of Staff.
(© Press Illustrating Service.)

MAJOR GEN. EDWARD M. LEWIS, commanding 30th Division, co-operating with British.

MAJOR GEN. HENRY C. SHARPE,
Quartermaster General of the U.S. Army.

MAJOR GEN. CHARLES B. WHEELER,
Chief Ordnance Officer of U. S. Army in France.