

Americans in Actual Battle on the Western Front

AMERICAN TROOPS PASSING THROUGH A RUINED FRENCH TOWN JUST CAPTURED AFTER FIERCE FIGHTING, IN THE GREAT ADVANCE THAT CARRIED THEM FROM THE MARNE TO THE VESLE.

AMERICAN RED CROSS FIRST-AID STATION IN FRENCH TOWN. BADLY WOUNDED SOLDIERS HAVE JUST BEEN BROUGHT IN FROM THE BATTLEFIELD ON STRETCHERS, WHILE OTHERS, SLIGHTLY WOUNDED, ARE AWAITING THEIR TURN.

(© Committee on Public Information, from Gilliams Service.)