

American Soldiers Doing Their Part on the Front

ICY WINDS AND SNOW-COVERED GROUND HAVE NO TERRORS FOR THESE HARDY YOUNG AMERICANS, WHO ARE SERVING A ONE-POUNDER AND WATCHING THE EFFECT OF THEIR SHOTS.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

NEAR BENEY, FRANCE, WHERE THE AMERICANS IN THE MEUSE FIGHTING STARTED TO DIG IN, BUT LATER FOUND THEY COULD DRIVE THE FOE THREE MILES FURTHER BEFORE THEY CALLED IT A DAY'S WORK.

(© Committee on Public Information, from Underwood & Underwood.)