

Difficult Problems Faced by Engineering Corps

SPLENDID WORK DONE BY THE BRITISH ROYAL ENGINEERS IN THROWING A BRIDGE OVER A STREAM TO REPLACE ONE THAT HAD BEEN RECENTLY BLOWN UP BY THE RETREATING GERMANS.
(© British Official Photo.)

THE PROBLEMS OF THE ENGINEER CORPS IN PROVIDING FOR RAPID TRANSPORTATION OVER DIFFICULT COUNTRY IS ILLUSTRATED BY THESE MASSES OF DEBRIS, IN THE VICINITY OF FORT DOUAUMONT, NEAR VERDUN.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)